You must not let your family miss this grand celebration in Topeka's loveliest park. There will be children's exercises, music and songs, free concert by Marshall's Band and speeches galore. There is ample shelter in case of rain so come with your whole family, bring your dinner along and stay all day among the trees in the fresh air.

May Day is now observed in every civilized country as the International Holiday of the working class. The object of its celebration is to FOSTER the FEELING of WORLD-WIDE WORKING CLASS SOLIDARITY. To that end we can all unite, regardless of creed, craft, politics or nationality. Come yourself and bring your friends to this demonstration and help make it a rousing success.
