RELIEF!

REV. W. M. WELLMAN,

of Smith county, Kansas, having unexpectedly come among us, and having the interest of the starving, suffering people of that country at heart, and, being an accredited agent, duly appointed by the

Kansas Relief Committee,

We cheerfully commend him to the confidence of a charitable public. He is one of our citizens, and we think, is straightforward and honorable. He asks to take nothing in his own hands, but desires to have everything sent to

The Smith County Aid Society,

Care E. S. Stover, Chairman Kansas Relief Committee, over C., B. & Q. and St. Jo. & Denver City R. R. to Hastings, Neb.

Mr. WELLMAN tells some heart-rending stories of the great distress in that stricken country, and we hope the large hearted people of Elkhart and Noble counties will liberally respond to the wails of those starving women and little ones, and each out of their cribs of abundance give a little.

Mr. WELLMAN came to this county with the dead body of Samuel C. Vail, son of Jesse D. Vail, and expected to return immediately, but after solicitations has concluded to remain a few days and do what he can.

We believe that whatever is entrusted to his care by our people, or sent to the address given, will go directly to the destitute.

Let us all help!
