

United Brethren Church, Richland, Kansas

This black and white photograph shows the United Brethren Church in Richland, Kansas. The church was built in 1888 on Board Street, and served the community for a number of years until it closed its doors on May 28, 1967. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, the town of Richland, which was located in Monmouth Township, Shawnee County, was abandoned when the Corps of Engineers acquired land in the area for the flood plain of Clinton Lake in nearby Douglas County.
