This was one of the better schools in the county. They had all the conveniences of outside toilets and plenty of good water to drink that was carried from a well a quarter mile down the road. Common drinking tin cup. I know, for I was there sitting in the lower left hand corner.

THERE IS NO WEALTH LIKE UNTO KNOWLEDGE
THIEVES CANNOT STEAL IT

We feel both glad and sad to-day
And scarce can hide the rising tear
We're glad for changes on life's way
Yet sad to part from schoolmates dear

In the 1900's it was the custom to have a basket dinner on the last day of school.

All the people in the community took well loaded baskets of food to enjoy a day of visiting and to see and hear the pupils perform in the program they presented on the last day of school.

As one can see by the picture on page 1 a large number attended the last day of school festivities.

The children were always anxious to receive their report cards to see if they had passed to the next grade.
