Dear Sir

your answer 11th inst was received. I have looked the Book through but found no other account or description about this pipe with the scalp locks except that I mentioned in my last letter, which is in the front of the Book "List of Chromo-Lithograph Plates" Plate 1 No 8.

"Tall Bull" the owner of this pipe, according to Col Dodge is the same one that was killed by W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) in that Battle. a short account is in Major Inmans Book "The Great Salt Lake Trail" Page 412. Compare the two Books.

on next page you will see "wherever they camped we found the print of a Womens shoe" these were the two Women from the Saline Valley.

On Page 401 it says: "In the Spring of 1879" this is a mistake it should be 1869, as shown in the Pages following.

I will send you the letters next week with explanation and Map.

Yours truly

A Roenigk
