

Down comes hatchet. Mrs. Nation's weapon falls on joint at 406 Kansas Avenue

This front page of The Topeka State Journal reports Carry Nation's attack on the Senate Saloon located at 406 Kansas Avenue, Topeka, Kansas. Nation and her followers entered the saloon and billiard parlor at 6:00 am. They smashed furniture and spilled liquor, wrecking the building. Local authorities arrested Nation and charged her with disturbing the peace.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, saloon smasher, caught the police on their guard this morning at 6 o'clock. As a result this female, a saloon at 406 Kansas avenue, under Metropolitan hall is a wreck. Mrs. Nation and her little band of followers were later arrested and taken to the police station. Mrs. Nation and her little band of followers were later arrested and taken to the police station. Mrs. Nation and her little band of followers were later arrested and taken to the police station.

The first encounter was in the street. Mrs. Nation was seen at an early hour this morning. A little before six o'clock Mrs. Nation, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. White and Miss Madeline Southard, entered the Salena billiard parlor and joint at 406 Kansas avenue, smashed the furniture and spilled the liquor until the place presented the scene of a building that had been lately saved from destruction by fire.

Mrs. Nation and her followers entered the place without resistance. Mrs. Nation and her followers entered the place without resistance. Mrs. Nation and her followers entered the place without resistance.

A man named Benner Jackson, who with the bartender was the only man in the room, recognized Mrs. Nation, and with a furious scream rushed toward her and seized her. The two then fought for a moment and then the bartender, who had been watching the fight, rushed in and tried to separate them. Mrs. Nation was then taken to the police station.

TRIBUTE TO CHONG.

Seventy thousand Russians unite in a fraternal testimony.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press), St. Petersburg, Jan. 3.—It is quite natural that the Russian people should show such an unbounded way of expressing their sympathy and admiration, and it is not surprising that they should express their sympathy in the most effective way possible.

They have done so in the case of the heroic patriot who was the first to raise the flag of independence in the face of a tyrannical and oppressive government.

It is a tribute to the heroism and courage of the Russian people that they have done this in the face of a government which has done everything in its power to suppress such a movement.

The Russian people are proud of their hero and of the part he has played in the history of their country.

They are proud of the part he has played in the history of the world and of the part he has played in the history of the human race.
