The College of Emporia

Students and Faculty 1921-1922. Enlarged endowment is needed to provide adequate equipment and instruction for this growing student group.

General view of the campus showing the five main buildings. Above the numerals are the sites of present and proposed buildings.
