WASHINGTON

February 21, 1933.

Upon application of the Governor of Kansas the Reconstruction Finance Corporation today made available $641,868 to meet current emergency relief needs during the months of March and April in a total of fifty-one counties.

These funds are made available under Title I, Section 1, subsection (c) of the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932 with the understanding that the responsibility of the political subdivisions and the State of Kansas to make every effort to develop their resources to provide relief is not in any way diminished.

Supporting data state that the 105 counties of Kansas during the fiscal year 1932 raised $1,500,000 in poor relief taxes, and in addition had outstanding at the end of the year approximately $1,000,000 in registered warrants and other obligations against the Poor Fund. Poor relief levies in 1933 are estimated at $1,700,000.

Emergency legislation now pending in the State Legislature would authorize the raising of approximately $3,000,000 additional funds for poor relief annually during the years 1933, 1934 and 1935, which together with the county relief levies would make a total of approximately $4,700,000 available annually for relief purposes.

With the passage of the pending State legislation, the Kansas Relief Committee plans "to aid the Boards of County Commissioners and other poor relief agencies in the various counties in the further development of their poor relief organization to meet the objective of the new legislation and provide for a more thorough investigation and budgeting of relief cases and better control of the kind and amounts of relief to be given."

WASHINGTON

February 15, 1933

Upon application of the Governor of New Hampshire the Reconstruction Finance Corporation today made available $421,913 to meet current emergency relief needs in that State during the period March 1 to April 30, 1933.

These funds are made available under Title I, Section 1, subsection (c) of the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932 with the understanding that the responsibility of the political subdivisions and the State of New Hampshire to make every effort to develop their resources to provide relief is not in any way diminished.

In support of his application the Governor stated that the State Director of Relief now has at least one trained social worker in each of the counties and larger cities of the State and that new applications for assistance are investigated within 24 hours. The Corporation also was informed that relief needs in the cities of Portsmouth and Nasua during March and April will be met from local resources and from balances of federal funds now on hand.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation heretofore has made available $944,690 to meet current emergency relief needs in the State of New Hampshire.
