

E. P. Lamborn correspondence and research papers

Section 9, Pages 241 - 270

This collection reflects E. P. Lamborn's life long interest in crime, criminals and law officers. E. P. Lamborn was an amateur historian and collector of sources on crime and criminals of the Middle West in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. His interests ranged from bandits, peace officers, famous detectives, and buffalo hunters. The Correspondence and Research section, presented here, contains much information on these topics from friends, relatives, companies, law officers, etc., who had some connection or dealings with these individuals. The arrangement for this section, generally, is alphabetical by last name of the correspondent. A detailed, searchable calendar of correspondents is available by clicking on "Text Version" below or by accessing the full collection finding aid in the link below. A transcription of this correspondence is not yet available. This series comprises boxes 2 and 3 of the E. P. Lamborn collection. You can find individual items in the order they are described in the "calendar of correspondents" by using the page selection feature available when you are looking at a full sized page image.

Mr. E. P. Lamborn, Route 2 Leavenworth, Kansas.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of Oct. 29th I beg to advise that I do not have photographs of the men you inquired about. In this connection will advise however, that photographs of some of them at least, might be secured from Mr. Criss Madison, Deputy U S Marshal at Guthrie, Oklahoma. This party helped make these arrests and might have photographs.

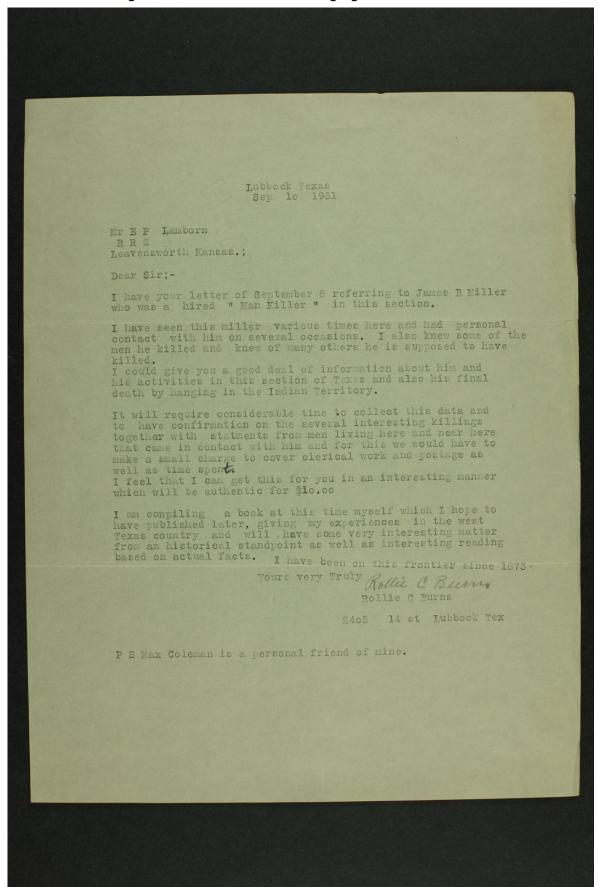

Or they might be secured from W O McIntosh, Special Agent Sou. Railway at Louisville, Ky. This man was Chief Special Agent for the Rock Island at that time and was very active in running down these criminals.

I believe you can secure the photographs of all of these parties at the Federal Penitentiary, Leavenworth Kansas as all of these train robbers were sent to that Institution.

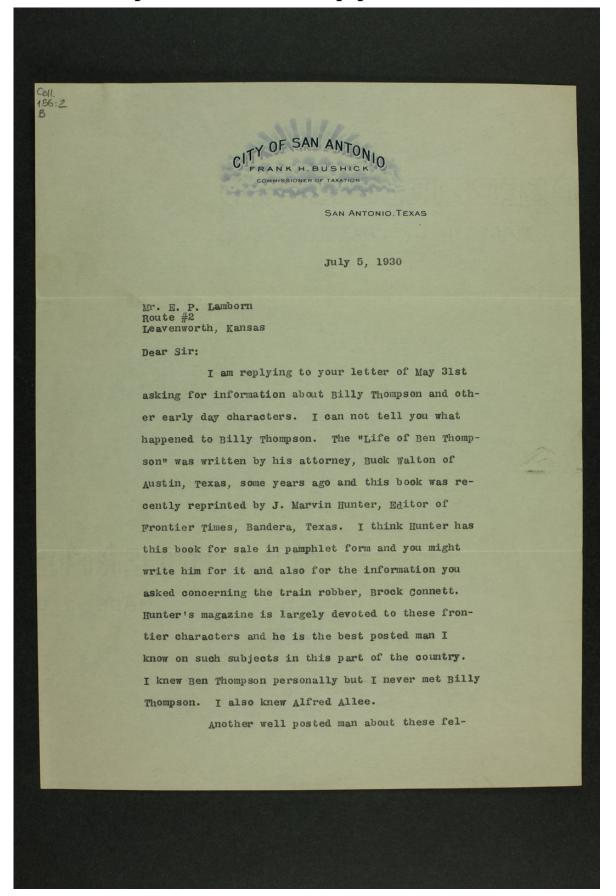

Yours truly,

Onief Special Officer.

to you if you haven't seen the book and you may keep it for your files.

Can't furnish you at this time exact details of where Billy died. I presume you have the oft printed story of how Ben was killed in the variety theatre in San Antonio in company with King Fisher, March 11th, 1884. I can send you something about this if you haven't already got it.

In regards to your other query, Brock Connett, after the attempted train robbery at Harwood he refugeed to the Altito pasture ranch of Alfred Allee in LaSalle county, where he was killed by Allee. Don't quote me as I know some of the people and don't want to offend them, but it was said at the time that Connett had eaten breakfast peacably with Allee and that Allee afterwards shot him, presumably for the reward on his head.

The Harwood robbery was frustrated by deputy United States marshals. They were guarding the express car and when the robbers attempted to open it, the officers opened fire and drove them off. One of these deputies was a young man named Duval West, who afterwards became United States Federal Judge.

Another of the robbers in the Harwood attempt was Ham White, wanted for a number of stage and express car robberies, who met death afterwards in a similar attempted robbery of a Southern Pacific train west of San Antonio.

Alfred Allee boarded a train one day at Pearsall and taking offense at the manner of the negro train porter, shot and killed him. Shortly afterward he was written up severely in a paper published at Cotulla, and sent word to the editor, W. J. Bowen, that he intended to kill him. Bowen was seated in a train at Pearsall on another day,
