

Blossom House Cafe, 200 block of Missouri, Alma, Kansas

The Blossom House Caf  , the two-story building on the right, was located on the west side of Missouri Street in the 200 block and owned by William Dieball. These three frame buildings were constructed in the late 1800s and were demolished and replaced by Alma Co-op's grain elevators in the 1990s (just to the south of the museum building).
