FREUD REFERS TO DR. RORSCACH

FREUD, Sigmund (1856-1939).

Typewritten letter, with minor corrections by hand, signed. Written from Vienna, Bergasse 19. December 8, 1924. 2 pp., quarto. In German, with English transcription. To an unnamed correspondent, though, apparently, a professional colleague:-

Very honored Sir!

By the perusal of your last communication, I was reminded that a young Swiss analyst, whose early death we all regretted very much, a Doctor Rorschach, set on foot studies regarding the same subject and established on these his "Formdeutungsversuche".

Since I did not have any interest in this field instar as it also would not be economical at this time to delve into this, I make you the following suggestion: In Zurich, Utoquai 39, resides a friend of the deceased, Dr. Emil

"Oberholzer, a very respected analyst who brought the works of Dr. Rorschach into the open. I mean you should get in touch with him, mentioning this correspondence and ask him if he is interested in this material. Let me know the outcome of this and I would forward your map to his address.

Most respectfully, your

Professor Sigm. Freud"

WIEN IX., BERGGASSE 19 29. I.25.

Sehr geehrter Herr!

Ich kann nur bedauern, dass Sie keine Antwort von Dr.Oberholzer erhalten haben.

Meines Wissens ist er nicht verreist oder verzogen, aber er ist ein sehr beschäftigter, dabei etwas eigenartiger Mann, und es ist wohl möglich, dass etwas in Ihrem Schreiben ihn von der Beantwortung zurückgehalten hat.

Für mich selbst muss ich leider wiederhollen, dass ich voraussichtlich keine Musse finden werde, mich in Ihr Manuskript zu vertiefen. Ich will es noch eine Weile behalten. Seien Sie aber nicht erstaunt, wenn es wieder zu Ihnen zurückfindet.

Eine Empfehlung an Dr.Hock oder eine aequivalente Persönlichkeit kann ich Ihnen nicht geben. Ich kenne niemand aus diesen Kreisen und vermeide es, von Unbekannten, mir ferne Stehenden etwas zu verlangen.

Mot hochachtungsvollem Gruss

Very honored Sir!

I regret that you did not receive an answer from Dr. Oberholzer. As far as I know, he is not on a journey nor has he moved; but he is a very busy man and, moreover a peculiar man*, and it is, therefore, possible that something in your communication held him back from replying to you.

As for myself, I regret to reiterate that I find no leisure to delve into your manuscript. I shall keep it for awhile. But do not be surprised if it should find its way back to you.

No, I cannot give you an introduction to Dr. Hock or to a similar person. I do not know anybody in this field, and avoid asking anything of strangers.

With respectful regards, your

Prof. Freud

From the desk of — COTTER HIRSCHBERG, M. D.

October 27, 1959

This letter of Ferenczi was given to me many years ago by a patient whom I helped treat medically rather than psychologically. The man had had a gradual deterioration from a previous level of high competence in a large business. Fortunately I was able to discover the etiology of the medical problem and, as a result, under medication, he was able to resume a high level of work efficiency and still continues to manage a large business in Colorado.

One Christmas, as a way of saying "thank you," he sent the Ferenczi letter to me, having purchased it from an autograph dealer in New York.

I have always valued it for its personal meanings to me, but yet have never been interested in forming a collection of historical materials, and it seemed to me particularly appropriate that in turning it over to the Historical Library it could continue to be valued and be even more useful than my merely keeping it in my files.

Freud

26-7-1938

Dear Doctor,

I admit you are right, but you yourself tried to excuse us. Our behavior must have made the impression of great indifference, but it was only the reaction to unusual circumstances. I have not forgotten that you want to go via Paris to America, and only wait for your arrival in Paris to make some arrangements with you. I am surprised that the Princess did not answer. Either the letter did not arrive as you will hear from her. She has let us know that she occasionally fainted through all the difficulties of the Royal visit.

We also feel unable to help others. My brother wants to come to London but I was unable to get the entrance permit for him. In Vienna we had the good relations to the Consul de . - Since you ask for my health, I report: Your organ, the ear, does not trouble me. $1\frac{1}{2}$ days of deafness though intact, was relieved by treatment. I do not yet have a satisfactory "Kiefer - ?" (this part cannot be deciphered) Schur Schnierer attempts to get one. Dr. Exicer, who was recommended to us. We did not like.

Occording to letter. printing out wron. 1000B

11-11-63 change made The troubles with the prothese remain the same. New are: trouble with the bladder in consequence of swelling of the prostata which is treated with Aomomin, and disagreeable heart condition with much tiredness, against which Nitroglycerin and unfortunately also restriction of smoking are supposed to help. Enough to do, we have not once felt bored during the last 7 weeks.

> We live in a furnished place, beautiful but much too expensive. My son thinks to have found a permanent home for us. Our belongings have not yet arrived, it is still uncertain whether and when they may come.

I hope to hear from you as soon as something happens. Meanwhile cordial regards,

Yours
