

Julius Schaubel, World War I soldier

Around 1919, the Kansas State Historical Society and the American Legion solicited biographical information from returning veterans (primarily members of the 35th and 89th infantry divisions) and the families of those who died in service, notably from the Gold Star Mothers. Each veteran or family member was asked to provide letters, photographs, a biography, and military records. This file contains information on Julius Schaubel, Great Lakes Training School, Chicago, Illinois. Schaubel died in June 1918 from pneumonia.

Date: 1918-1919

Callnumber: World War I Coll. #49, Box 40 Kansas Soldiers

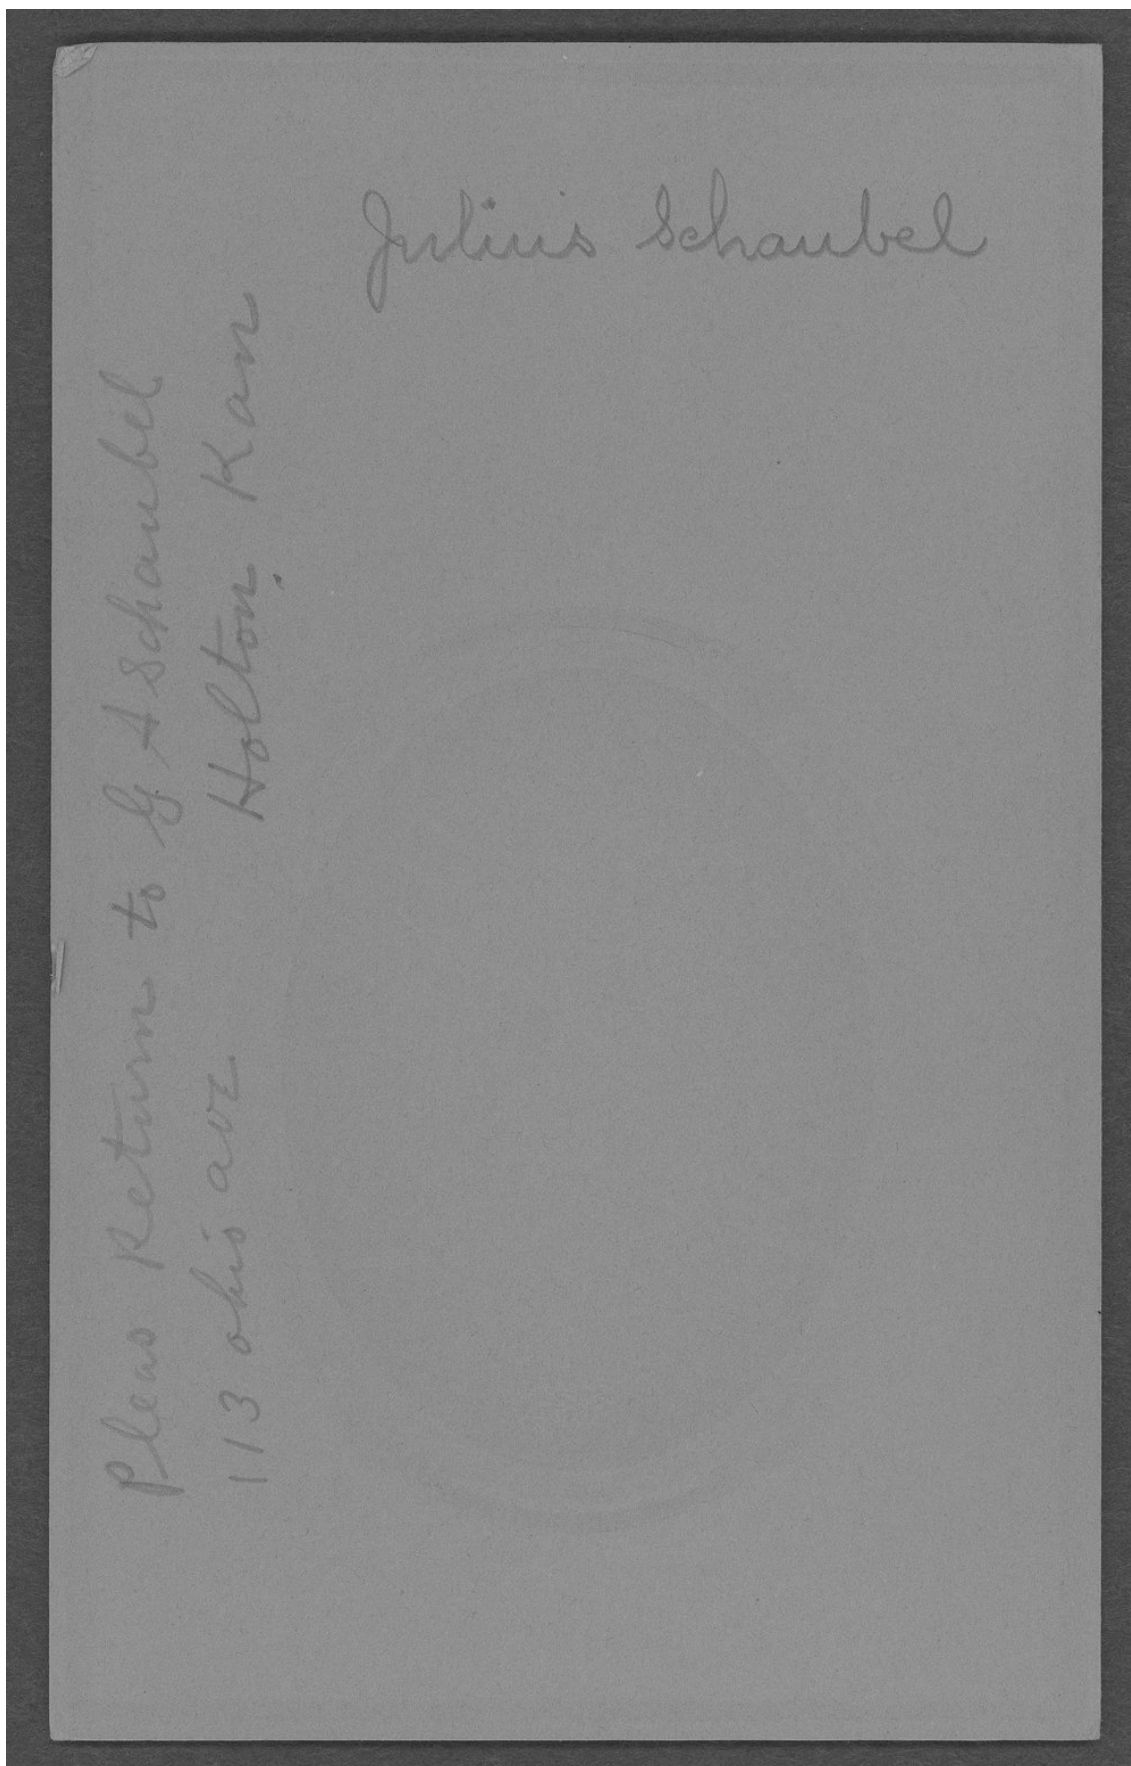

KSHS Identifier: DaRT ID: 224250

Item Identifier: 224250

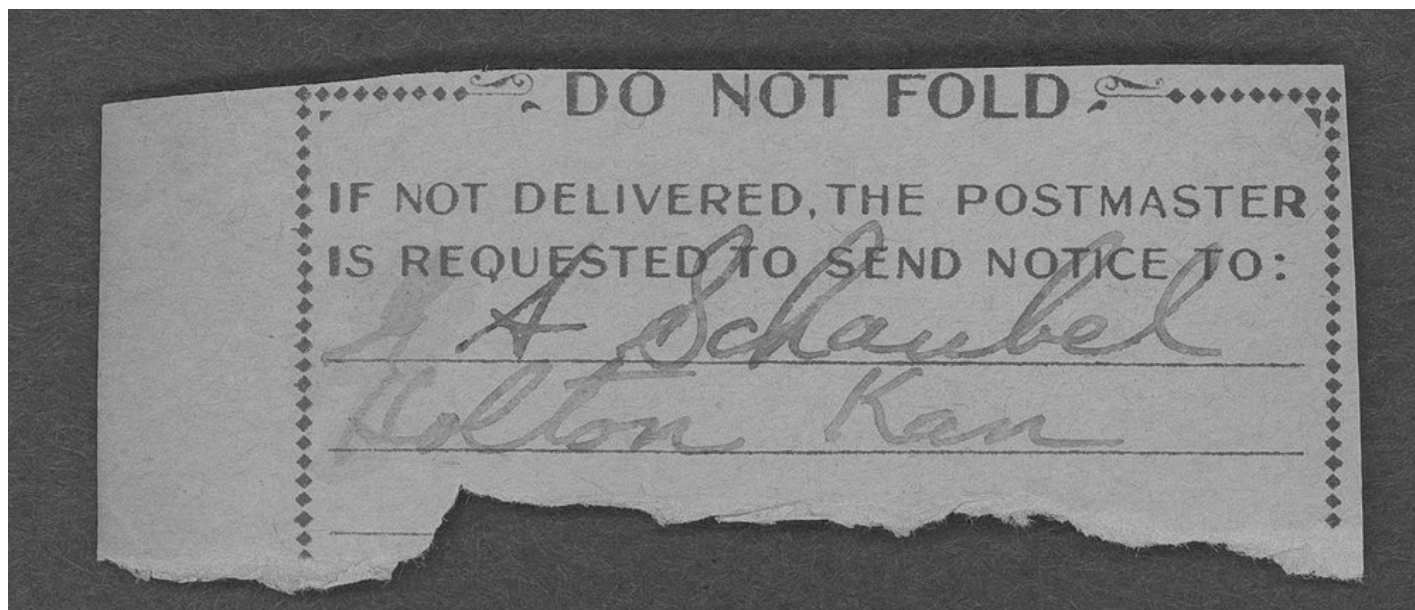

www.kansasmemory.org/item/224250

KANSAS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Julius Schaubel, World War I soldier

Julius Schaubel, World War I soldier

Return to

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 191

Murray and was a resident of Holton several years ago.

JULIUS SCHAUBEL

Julius Schaubel was born in Randolph, Kans, January 29, 1896 and died at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Chicago, Ill., aged 21 years.

It was an unusually tender service that was held in connection with the burial of this young man who, obedient to the call of his country enlisted in the U. S. Naval service, April 30 of this year. Three weeks ago he had an attack of measles which soon developed into pneumonia causing his untimely death. The body was brought to Holton on Wednesday of last week and services held in the Evangelical church Thursday afternoon.

Rev. D. Swart of St. Joseph, had charge of the services and preached an eloquent sermon beautifully appropriate to the occasion. The pastor, Rev. C. F. Kliphardt assisting.

The fact that he was buried with military honors and such patriotic bodies as Company B, G. A. R., W. R. C., and other organizations of which he was a member, attended, headed by the Holton municipal band playing its solemn dirges, lent special interest and impressiveness to the procession and made very real and vivid to the people of Holton, the toll and ravages of war. At the grave Company B fired the customary military salute, the bugler sounded taps and the body was laid away to its long rest.

Julius Schaubel was an exemplary young man, happy, cheerful, industrious. He was converted last fall under the ministry of Rev. Swart and enlisted in his Master's service. In his letters home he was expressive of his pleasure in reading the Bible, the Men's Bible class gave him upon his leave eight weeks ago. To his memory will belong the honor of being the first of the community to lay down his life in our present war.

He leaves a father, G. A. Schaubel, a sister, Mrs. Meta Singer and three brothers, Robert, Herman and Hugo (the latter also in the U. S. Naval services) to mourn their loss.

INSTITUTE NOTES

Prof. Yates, head of the Science department of the Pittsburg State Normal gave a very interesting lecture Monday.

There are 137 teachers enrolled.

Tuesday morning, F. L. Pinet, editor of the Kansas Teachers' and Western school Journal lectured to the Institute. His subject was "The Teacher's Role in the Present War."

Julius Schaubel, World War I soldier

Holton, Kan. 3/3,- 1919.

Kansas State Historical Society

William E. Connelley Sec.

Topeka, Kan.

Dear Sir;- In answer to your request of Feb. 28, concerning Julius Schaubel his ary service, death and etc. I am enclosing same as taken from the local paper also photograph use these as you see fit but in turn I would like to have them returned after you have completed your records with same I am

Yours Truly

G. A. Schaubel