

Weekly Kansas chief

View and search this newspaper by clicking on the Chronicling America link below. This newspaper comes from the collections of the Kansas Historical Society and was digitized with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities as part of the National Digital Newspaper Program. The Weekly Kansas Chief was made notable by its founder and editor, Sol (Solomon) Miller, a pioneer of Kansas newspaper publishing. Miller established the White Cloud Kansas Chief in 1857 before changing its name to the Weekly Kansas Chief and moving the newspaper to nearby Troy, Kansas in 1872. Miller died in 1897 but the Weekly Kansas Chief continued until 1918.
