Kansas Adjutant General general correspondence

Section 10, Pages 271 - 279

This item is correspondence of the Kansas Adjutant General's Office under Charles Chadwick (1862-1863) and Guilford Dudley (1863-1864), including special orders issued by Governor Thomas Carney to Samuel N. Wood of the Morris County Rangers to detain any organized bands of guerillas near Council Grove and William P. Dutton to equip his company in Miami County. Several letters were received from John B. Gray, Missouri Adjutant General, inquiring about Missouri men that had enlisted in the Kansas militia. Most of the correspondence consists of requests for muster rolls, arms, resignations, and commissions. Other notable correspondents include Stephen A. Cobb and Sidney Clarke. A searchable, full-text version of this correspondence is available by clicking "Text Version" below.

To J. R. Cumble
Muster & Disb'g Officer

A law has been passed to the effect that no bounties except such as are now provided by law shall be paid to any persons enlisted after the 5th of January next. The only bounty provided by law is the one hundred (100) dollars authorized by act of Congress - promulgated in Genl Order forty nine (49) series of 1860 from this office. Bounties will be paid in accordance with existing orders to recruits who enlist before January fifth (5th) inclusive for any three (3) years organization in service or authorized by the War Department & in process of completion.

Furnish the Governor with copy of this immediately.

Acknowledge receipt by order Secy of War
