

Kansas Adjutant General general correspondence

Section 15, Pages 421 - 445

Correspondence sent and received by the Kansas Adjutant General's Office. Thomas J. Anderson succeeded Cyrus K. Holliday as Adjutant General in April 1865. Notable correspondents include Edmund G. Ross, William McEntyre Dye, and Sidney Clarke. Several letters were also received from publisher D.R. Anthony regarding the copying and distribution of the 1864 Adjutant General's Report. Many letters acknowledge the sending and receipt of muster rolls. This correspondence also includes several petitions nominating a new Brigadier General, including Colonel Sandy Lowe of Douglas County replacing General William Fishbacker. A searchable, full-text version of this correspondence is available by clicking "Text Version" below.

Sir
I have the honor most respectfully to request to be furnished with a list of the different organizations of troops from your State, still in the Service of the United States and their Stations from the latest reports received at your office,

It is most essential, for different reasons, that this Office should be kept advised of the whereabouts of these troops and I trust that you will comply with my request at your earliest convenience
