R.L. Cochman to Governor John St. John

Peabody, Kansas. Feb. 26, 1880.

Gov. John P. St. John:

Dear Sir:— The glorious work of Temperance goes bravely on. The people are becoming thoroughly aroused, and the proposed Amendment is growing more and more in favor with the masses every day. We are organizing throughout the County, and will not rest till every school district in Marion County can boast of a live active Prohibition Club in good running order. But our people all are exceedingly anxious to see and hear their beloved Governor talk Temperance.

Can you not name an evening in the near future when you can favor us with a lecture upon this, to the citizens of this thriving young Commonwealth, most important topic? If you can

R.L. Cochman to Governor John St. John

I feel warranted in assuring you that it would not only prove to be a source of extreme gratification to the true and faithful, but also be the means of enlisting others in the good cause.

Hoping to receive a favorable response to this request at your earliest convenience, I am most respectfully

Your Obt. Servt.

R. L. Cochman,

President Peabody. P. Club.
