Henry McKinney to Governor John St. John

Great Bend Pa. March 12/80
 Gov. J. P. St. John
 I see by the N.Y. Post that you solicit money, & Temperance literature for your political campaign for a Temperance Constitutional Amendment I send you one copy, An Exhaustive Bible Essay, entitled, No License for Alcoholic Drinks in the Bible.

This Pamphlet you can freely publish for your campaign work if you choose, But the out side ^{cover} must be just like ^{this}, except the altera tion of price & notice of sale by me & the Methodist Book Room. Also Copy righted according to act of Congress in the year 1879. All Rights Reserved.

This is necessary to protect my copy right, which I do not propose to surrender.

The printing, if you con-siders to do it, must be under your supervision, or your Agent & only for

for the purpose mentioned - The colored people where they are religious, are very enthusiastic, & I think this pamphlet would have a good effect upon them & the Church.

If you ride this pamphlet, please have the party watch its effect.

Yours Respectfully

Henry M. McKinney

One for every church to try its effect would not cost much.

The Star of Hope. Allen B. Tate.
Editor - Williamsport, Lycoming Co. Pa. is the ablest prohibition paper I ever saw.
It is a dead shot. You can get 10,000 for the campaign at 75 cts a copy - or subscribe for a few copies & republish for circulation in Kansas - or copy from it for your papers.
You can print & sell this pamphlet for campaign expenses & I will not charge you any thing. Yours Respectfully

Henry M. McKinney
