

J. M. Satterthwaite to Governor John St. John

J.M. Satterthwaite, an El Dorado newspaper publisher and amendment supporter, would favor a visit and speech by Kansas Governor St John, or at least, the names of other prominent temperance speakers who may be available.

Gov St John—

Honored Sir—

The Prohibition Club at this place have appointed me a member of a committee to secure the services of prominent and able speakers to address the people of this county on the proposed constitutional amendment. We have indirectly heard that you were expected to visit this portion of the state sometime in the near future. Can you not visit El Dorado, stop over with us for a time and enlighten us on the temperance question.

We know that you would do us good and I feel con-

Could you give me the name of some temperance speakers
whose names would command
an audience and whose speeches would further the cause; and whose services could be secured?

Butler County gave a majority for the temperance nominee for Gov in 1874 and if the field is properly worked over it will give the proposed amendment a working majority.
If the true sentiment of the party is fairly represented it will give
