Cor. Carney,

Dear Sir,

Enclosed you find a copy of the proceedings in regard to the formation of a Cavalry Company under the Militia Law of this State. Some 3 or 4 of the members have been absent from home, and are not yet sworn in, but said to us to go ahead, and they would be sworn in when they returned. There are others who are not yet on our list, who I am told by some of the members will join soon. Be kind enough to send the Commissions, and furnish us with sufficient arms for such a company at your earliest convenience, and oblige

Yours Respectfully,

Wm. H. Bower.

Sir:

By examining the within, which was returned on account of a supposed deficiency of the number of members, you will find that by counting the officers elect and privates (designated as "members") there are forty three names therein contained - which has since been increased to fifty three as you will find by the inclosed printed blank.

Yours most truly

There are a few cases where the parties claim exemption on the ground of having been discharged from U. S. Service, on account of disability, - but they are now as sound as any body.

My Company numbers about 60 - well drilled, and ready for service any time you may call on us.

Yours &c
