

Kansas Adjutant General general correspondence

Section 3, Pages 61 - 90

Correspondence including general orders from Adjutant General Charles I. Martin and telegrams between commanding officers of the Kansas National Guard. Also included are appointments of non-commission officers, strength reports detailing desertions and injuries, and descriptive cards of cavalry horses, including their age, size, purchase date and location. Topics discussed include the recruiting of qualified Kansas National Guard members for service in the regular army, instructions for removing enemy sympathizers within ranks and monitoring German nationals in service, and furloughs or personnel transfers. A payroll list with signatures of received payments for members of Troop B, 1st Squadron, 1st Cavalry, drafted into service on August 5, 1917, can also be found in this material.

INSTRUCTIONS.

This card will accompany the animal as long as it remains in the service. The original card will be kept by the accountable officer, who will furnish a copy thereof to the responsible officer in each case. The animal will be weighed and measured in May of each year until seven years old. Organization commander will give character and condition over his signature at date of transfer. On final disposition the card will be properly completed and sent to the Chief, Quartermaster Corps.

* NOTE.—In taking girth, tape should be broad-placed just behind withers and under belly at girth place, and should be drawn tight enough to make respiration just noticeable by slight movement of tape. If animal is very fat, deduct 1½ to 2 inches for true girth.

In measuring height use measuring standard.
