Hon. John P. St. John:
Dear Governor:

Yours of the 26th came to my hands about 11 o'clk today. I am pleased to learn of your favorable consideration of my suggestion. I had equally good news from Rev. A. M. Richardson three or four days ago.

When I wrote I did not have in mind the fact that Fourth of July came on Sunday, though I had noted it; but usually we celebrate the 3d or 5th in such case, and I referred to this. It seems to me best to recommend for this celebration, as a secular affair, Saturday, 3d of July, and that the ministers and leaders in Sunday Schools have appropriate exercises and services of a more serious and religious character, to some extent, on the sacred day. We may thus make more thorough and lasting impressions, and warm up.

Most truly & respectfully H. P. Stebbins.
