Section 72, Pages 2131 - 2160

Correspondence of the Kansas Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. The correspondence is arranged chronologically and begins with an index compiled in the 1940s. The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS) was organized in 1865 following the death of Abraham Lincoln and the conclusion of the Civil War as a fraternal organization primarily composed of veterans and hereditary members to memorialize the events of the Civil War. This collection includes frequent correspondence from William M. Abernathy, Edwin Peter Diehl, Samuel T. Cushing, Jefferson Brumback, James H. Gillpatrick, Ulysses S. Grant, Forrest H. Hathaway, W. P. Huxford, Merritt H. Insley, Alexander McCook, John P. Nicholson, Amos H. Plumb, W. R. Smedburg, and Eugene F. Ware, among many others.

My dear Capt
Enclosed please find check for $5 in payment of enclosed bill -

I note the circular of Aug 17/91 requesting copy of photographs of members of the Commandery, published in albums, but I regret that I have none whatever that I can send, otherwise I might have done so long ago, in reply to request that have reached me.

The only one I know of, Mrs Wilson has; it was taken during the war, and she is loath to let it out of her possession - If ever have an occasion again, I will send a copy to our Commandery - Very truly yours

Thomas Wilson
