

Rolla Clymer correspondence

Section 140, Pages 4171 - 4200

This series of the Rolla Clymer collection includes sent and received correspondence arranged chronologically beginning in 1909. With few exceptions, the correspondence provides a continuous and very complete view of his activities. Much of the earliest correspondence in the Clymer collection pertains to information about the College of Emporia for the period Clymer was a student there. Scattered throughout the remainder of the correspondence is information about Emporia athletics and alumni activities and letters with former classmates. From 1914 to 1918, Clymer was editor and manager of the Olathe, Kansas, Register. In 1918, Rolla Clymer moved his young family to El Dorado, Kansas, where he became editor and manager of the El Dorado Republican. Except for a six month hiatus in 1937 as editor and manager of the Santa Fe New Mexican in Santa Fe, New Mexico, Clymer served the remainder of his professional career in El Dorado.

In his later years, Clymer devoted much of his time to efforts to preserve the Kansas Flint Hills region which he dearly loved. In addition to newspaper editorials, he wrote and published numerous widely circulated articles and poems about the Flint Hills. Perhaps his best known tribute was his poem "Majesty of the Hills," which helped earn him the designation as Poet Laureate of the Flint Hills. Rolla Clymer died on June 4, 1977, having been the editor of the El Dorado Times for fifty-nine years. For a complete contents list of the Rolla Clymer collection, see the External Links below.

Gentlemen:

As advised in your letter of November 12, we have received the Friday copies of the Eldorado Times and are pleased with the appearance of the paper, and have plans for the future of advertising in the Times.

At the present, however, our budget for Eldorado was exhausted by the erection of the stone sign on the hill east of your city. This sign, by the way, is one of the best appearing in this part of the country and we believe it to be pretty effective advertising in itself.

In regard to the Eldorado Times, we wish that you would bring it again to our attention on or about January 1, 1927. If possible, please send either then or before your Publisher's Statement of the ABC.

Dear Sirs:-

We have your letter saying the MacManus Agency is holding up invoices for August and September advertising of Chrysler because we inserted dealers signature other than the order called for.

We have previously explained this situation and there is no reason why any misunderstanding should prevail. The E. J. Rodda Motor Company of Wichita is the Chrysler distributor for this territory; Warren-Keller was the Eldorado dealer. The distributor took the local agency away from the dealer, and the firm of Warren-Keller went out of business. Mr. Rodda himself was in Eldorado at the time, came to our office personally and talked to the undersigned. He said that he intended to get a new dealer here as soon as possible, that he didn't want the Chrysler line to lose the value of unbroken advertising and for us to continue the schedule running during the interim, inserting the name of the E. J. Rodda Motor Company in the advertisements in place of Warren-Keller, as ordered by the agency. He said that the share of the cost of the advertisements in question would be charged to him as the distributor and that he would take care of it. We followed Mr. Rodda's instructions. He now has a new dealer on the job--and we not only cannot get pay for advertising thus run under strict injunction from a man in authority but we can neither get a new schedule started, though it is promised.

I wish it were possible for you to take this up with MacManus and make a strong representation. ~~EmaxEx~~ Mr. Rodda will back us up in what we say. We informed the MacManus Agency at the time the disputed advertising was started of what we intended to do, but never heard from them. I suppose the advertising in question would have been paid without a murmur, if we had gone ahead and run the schedule inserting the name of a firm as dealers which had gone out of business. In this instance, we were only working with the distributor trying to protect his business here, and the situation has worked out to the advantage of Chrysler. We should be paid in full for every line of this advertising; there is no just reason why we should not be paid without any further delay.

My Dear Hoyt:-

I was mighty glad to hear from you; I don't believe I owed you a letter and think you are full of prunes. I appreciate what you said in your letter; a fellow always likes to hear those things, but it wasn't necessary, for I know how you feel anyway. Many things may be left unsaid between friends--and a perfect understanding prevail. I have been for you all the time and am for you now because I know you have done no wrong. It is a shame that you have to be subjected to this further embarrassment. It came at a time, too, when I was just congratulating myself that we had about pulled through the swamp. I was very much upset over the new development and am righteously angry at certain ones who are under obligations for having passed their word. I can forgive anything but double-crossing. I am going to take a trip in your favor shortly and, of course, will give you every consideration possible in the paper. Unfortunately, we have to print the news. I hope the new developments will be devoid of sensationalism and we may be trusted to take care of your best interests as far as we may at all times. But whatever I may have to do in the line of duty, I want you always to feel that I am your constant and unwavering friend and believe in you utterly.

Our kids are fine. We get a great deal of pleasure out of them. Dave talks a lot and Catherine is beginning to try to sit up.

Dear Rolla,

The other day Mrs. Grant told Mabel that Harold was quite on edge himself and was extremely "fidgety" evenings. So last night they came down to the house to listen to whatever the radio had to offer and to visit.

I feel ever so much better than I did when I first wrote you. The boys have wonderful spirit. Harold says they have not been in the same mental condition since the Pittsburg game 1925. They laugh and joke in the gym before practice but if anyone makes a definite out and out statement about the Yaps the boys just snarl a reply. In practice he no longer has to keep urging them to run hard and charge quickly. With the snap of the ball they have that old dash. He has modified a few of his plays just enough to throw the Normal off a little without forcing the boys to learn a lot of absolutely new stuff. Harold feels in his own mind that the Normal will never beat us on straight football, or any ordinary forward passes or their standard line or play. Of course a fumble, or a fluke might let them win. Then some entirely new play or system of attack might do it but such comes only once in a generation. Even at that we might be able to score more than they as we have something up our sleeve. In other words, the boys are rapidly approaching that condition when they play hard smashing football, awake to every opportunity. On defense Horn and Mayo are going great. Each has played such hard football against our very first string subs so that the subs say they pity those Normal backs. We will not be ashamed of the way the boys play, regardless of the outcome.

I am worried about the crowd. The College will have 6200 reserved seats and 5000 are sold right now or were yesterday at 4 PM. There will be about 2000 general admission. From all indications there may be even 10000 people try to see that game if it a nice day to drive and WHERE WILL WE PUT THEM? The Normal would be no better off as they have accommodations for about 6500 in permanent bleachers and would in all probability not build more than enough for a couple of thousand more. Schairner Field is completely surrounded by bleachers, ends and sides.

Harold said last evening that he would probably want you to say a few words to the team at their private meeting after the pep rally the evening before the game.

I wish you would reconsider your declaration about staying with me. Mabel does not expect to go to hospital until Dec 2. She is going out to hospital so there would be no confusion at the house at all. She is even going to the game if it a nice day!!! I'll be so concerned about the game I'll not pay any attention to you. You will have to shift for yourself as I will have some professional calls to make (pity the patients) but we might squeeze in a little time.

Until next week,

Twist

At any rate, time drags so "heavy on my hands" that I am delighted to have others around to shorten the hours. So bundle up the youngsters and come along.

But, before I got around to it, here you "had went and done it." I certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness and our "liveness." You and the Poehler Mercantile Company are the livest members on the map. If we get Skinner's, we shall certainly break an arm to put the stuff over in this territory.

My dear Clymer:

I am getting out a book, "Yurrap As Is", made up from the letters I wrote from Europe last summer. This book ought to sell, partly because it is a proper book, and partly because some people like to buy books written by Kansas authors. My problem is to get the book on the shelf of the book-seller, and it is difficult because he buys his books from jobbers, and will not pay much attention to my circular, unless he feels the urge of possible buyers.

Won't you go to your book dealers and explain why they should have this book on sale for the holiday trade, as it will be what they want for buyers who are looking around for "something a little different", and would be tempted by a Kansas book, written by a man whom they know?

You might go still further and ask several of my friends to do the same, thus creating the "psychology" which would interest the book men.

The book will be out this week, so please hurry.

In return I will do as much for you any time.

Yours sincerely,
