

Rolla Clymer correspondence

Section 303, Pages 9061 - 9090

This series of the Rolla Clymer collection includes sent and received correspondence arranged chronologically beginning in 1909. With few exceptions, the correspondence provides a continuous and very complete view of his activities. Much of the earliest correspondence in the Clymer collection pertains to information about the College of Emporia for the period Clymer was a student there. Scattered throughout the remainder of the correspondence is information about Emporia athletics and alumni activities and letters with former classmates. From 1914 to 1918, Clymer was editor and manager of the Olathe, Kansas, Register. In 1918, Rolla Clymer moved his young family to El Dorado, Kansas, where he became editor and manager of the El Dorado Republican. Except for a six month hiatus in 1937 as editor and manager of the Santa Fe New Mexican in Santa Fe, New Mexico, Clymer served the remainder of his professional career in El Dorado.

In his later years, Clymer devoted much of his time to efforts to preserve the Kansas Flint Hills region which he dearly loved. In addition to newspaper editorials, he wrote and published numerous widely circulated articles and poems about the Flint Hills. Perhaps his best known tribute was his poem "Majesty of the Hills," which helped earn him the designation as Poet Laureate of the Flint Hills. Rolla Clymer died on June 4, 1977, having been the editor of the El Dorado Times for fifty-nine years. For a complete contents list of the Rolla Clymer collection, see the External Links below.

Mr. J. D. Joseph, Whitewater, Kansas

My Dear Mr. Joseph:
I am enclosing a rate card in answer to your letter. The open rate on the left hand side of the card is the one for you to use in figuring your space requirements. The inch rate, of course, refers to one column wide and an inch deep. An advertisement two columns wide and five inches deep would be ten inches, which would cost $3.50 per issue. If you use sufficient volume of space during a thirty days' interval, the rate automatically takes the designations listed below. I am sure you will find this card carrying sufficient information for your purposes.

as to publishing your copy on the editorial page each day, I cannot assure that. We do not sell position in our paper; the exigencies of each day's problem must take care of that. However, we would keep your request uppermost in mind and I feel it is altogether possible that we might be able to place your advertisement on that page most (if not all) of the time.

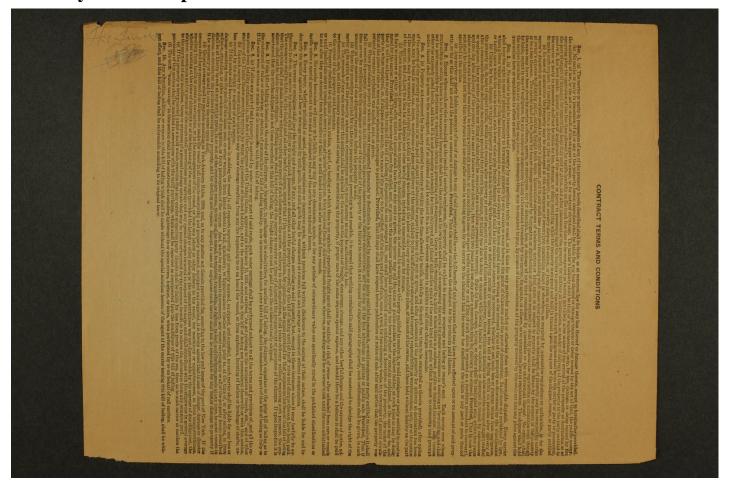

If you favor us with your copy, we will try to give you the best of service.

Very truly yours,
THE TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY

At the request of a number of member newspapers, we have made arrangements to supply each day's releases of the Comics and Cartoon Service in full-page mats, including captions and lines. This is contingent on obtaining orders from a sufficient number of members, at a small additional assessment, to cover the cost.

This page mat, 8 columns wide, would include the four 6-column strips, two 3-column panels, two 2-column panels and the 2-column crossword puzzle. It would be approximately $16\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide by $20\frac{1}{4}$ inches deep, printing surface.

The day and date would be included in a folio line but the name of the paper could not be included. The mat would be ready for casting the plate used in your newspaper, eliminating all individual flat-casts, setting and renewing captions, making-up each day's comic page and rolling the page mat.

If you are using a full page of comics, we believe, the savings effected in the elimination of these mechanical operations will be much greater than the additional assessment for the page-mats, which would be from $1.00 to $2.00 weekly, depending on the number of members participating.

The full-page mat service will be started as soon as we have sufficient orders to cover the expense. You would be advised of the exact assessment before the service is begun and this would be adjusted subsequently whenever increased participation makes possible a reduction.

May we have your decision, please, at your earliest convenience?

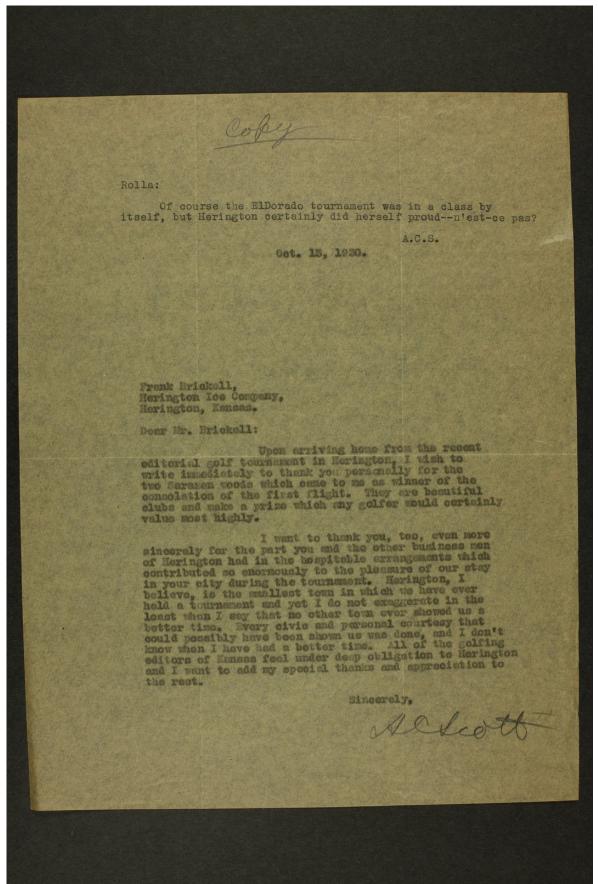

Sincerely yours,

General Feature Editor

Mr. Bert Harris, Herington, Kansas

My Dear Bert:- You put it over in great style. It was a grand tournament, well arranged and well handled in every particular. After our splurge last spring, in which we went entirely too strong, you showed an extraordinary fine brand of common sense by doing your best and not trying to out-do anybody else. I am proud of you. You should also be happy over the fine cooperation you had at home; the fellows there certainly helped a lot. I think I got more satis faction mixime out of the cooperation of the home folk than anything else from my tournament.

I pulled out early Saturday and did not get to tell you goodbye. I would have said these things then, but am now writing them instead. I suppose you are tired this week, but it ought to be a fatigue savored by a consciousness of well done. Now go ahead and get elected to the legislature. And then may the Lord have pity on you.

Sincerely yours,

I am writing a thank-you note to Jett's today.

Jett Mercantile Company, Herington, Kansas

I am the very happy recipient of a Gladstone bag given by your firm as a prize in the Kansas Editorial Association golf tournament held last week in Herington.

It was a generous gift, far too generous for such a would-be golfer as I, but I prize and appreciate it very highly. I want you to know how grateful I am to you for this evidence of your good will toward our association, and wish to thank you most cordially for the gift itself. The Herington tournament was well handled and the cooperation of your business and civic interests is a bit of community enterprise that does your town proud. I spent two very pleasant days there and will always carry with me a most favorable impression of your wide-awake and progressive town.

Again thanking you, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Cecil Jones, Wichita, Kansas

I have cracked a sore lip several times over your good letter which arrived today. I am sorry that your faith in some of our specimens of mankind has been weakened. I knew your opponent quite well from previous contact, and was not surprised at anything that happened. However, putting down a groove is something not ordinarily tolerated by the devotees of the game--those fellows who would rather be good sports than champions. I got a great deal of amusement out of the whole affair, but think you bore yourself most nobly under the provacation. I hope your war clubs will be duly sharpened, and that next spring you will take all the braw lads into camp when we come to Wichita. I doubt if I will be in the first flight on such a course as the Wichita Country Club, but I can sit on the fence and watch you go by.

Hope I can see you sometime. It is a long while between tournaments. And I like to be around you.

Sincerely,
