The Good

GOODLAND, KAN

First Congregation Church, Goodland, Kan.

This church has had a very moving history. Erected in the town of Voltaire in 1888, moved to Goodland in 1889, when it was enlarged and furnished, and rested for two years on a lot three blocks east of its present location. Finding this very inconvenient it was moved again to its present location. In 1901 it was struck by lightning. The damage resulting has been repaired. The church is entirely free of debt. A reception to the pastor, Rev. J. E. Kirkpatrick, will be given in the church to-night open to the public.
