F. T. Ingalls to Governor John St. John

In this letter, F. T. Ingalls sends his regrets to Kansas Governor St. John, that he will be unable to attend the August temperance gathering in Atchison. However, Ingalls used his influence to persuade the railroad superintendent to run a special excursion train for the event.

My dear Governor:

Rev. Pardee Butler called on me on Sat. last in regard to a temperance rally in the county during the 1st. of Aug. at which you would be present.

I told him that I regretted that I should be away. So that I should not be able to further the project as I could wish. but I hope that it will be pushed through, and that you will be present. I have from the Supt. of the Cen. Branch R.R. this a.m. and he will run an excursion out from Atchison if desired. and I have no doubt that the country people will turn out in good numbers. if the affair is worked up with due notice.

F. T. Ingalls to Governor John St. John

The R.Rs Supt. would like to have at least two weeks' notice, and I hope that you will agree upon a date in your correspondence with Rev. Parker Butler, as soon as practicable.

Very truly
F. T. Ingalls,
Speaker.

Hon J. P. St. John
