

C. Monjeau to Governor John P. St.. John

In this letter from C. Monjeau, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Kansas City, Mo, to Kansas Governor St. John, Monjeau introduces Col. A. P. Higgins, whose experience (presumably with intemperance) is described as "bitters blasting". Monjeau is anxious for Higgins to speak to the "doubters."

To His Excellency
Gov. J. P. St. John.
Topeka, Kan.

My dear Governor:
This will introduce to you the bearer, G. D. St.
P. Higgins. He is a Christian brother and a very effective political worker. Please hear him & lend him what influence you can. His experience is bitter & blasting. I want him to tell it in the "Doubtful States." — I have the honor to remain
Sincerely yours,
C. Monjeau
