

G. W. Sulton to Governor John St. John

A letter from G. W. Sulton of Hartford, who previously told Kansas Governor St. John the people in his community "needed working up" on the amendment, asks the Governor to come deliver a Temperance speech, as he had promised.

Governor St John
Topeka KS
Sir

Allow me to congratulate you on your success in the convention.

And now I want you to set a time in the near future when you can make your promise good by giving us a Temperance Speech

Set the time far enough in the future so we can advertise it well

Yours Truly G. W. Sulton
