

W. V. Johnston to Governor John St. John

In this letter, Kansas Governor St. John is asked by W.V. Johnston, on behalf of the Ford County Temperance Union, to visit his community and deliver a Prohibition Amendment speech, either in Spearville or neighboring Dodge City. Johnston emphasizes Prohibition is not a popular idea in Dodge City. Mr. Johnston is secretary of the Temperance Union.

W. V. Johnston to Governor John St. John

Speareville Sept 7 / 1880

To His Excellency
Gov John P St John

Topeka Kansas

The Board county "Y. W." wished me to ask you if it would be convenient for you to visit our town and county and deliver an address in behalf of the Prohibition amendment and if so ~~at what~~ and at what place if at Speareville or at Dodge city or at Bothe
We are quite anxious to have you visit Speareville as there is no Temperance organization at Dodge and Temperance is not a favorite topic with the people of that city Will you please inform me if you will come and I will see to it that the country is well
