

Matilda Fletcher to Governor John St. John

A letter from prominent 19th century lecturer and suffragist, Matilda Fletcher, to Kansas Governor St. John, describing her considerable speaking experience and credentials, and expressing her interest in presenting a speech in Kansas entitled "The Genius of Liberty". The letterhead is for the Palmer House in Chicago, Illinois, and has information about rates, etc.

Creator: Fletcher, Matilda

Date: September 08, 1880

Callnumber: Governor's Office, St. John, Correspondence Received-Subject File, Box 20

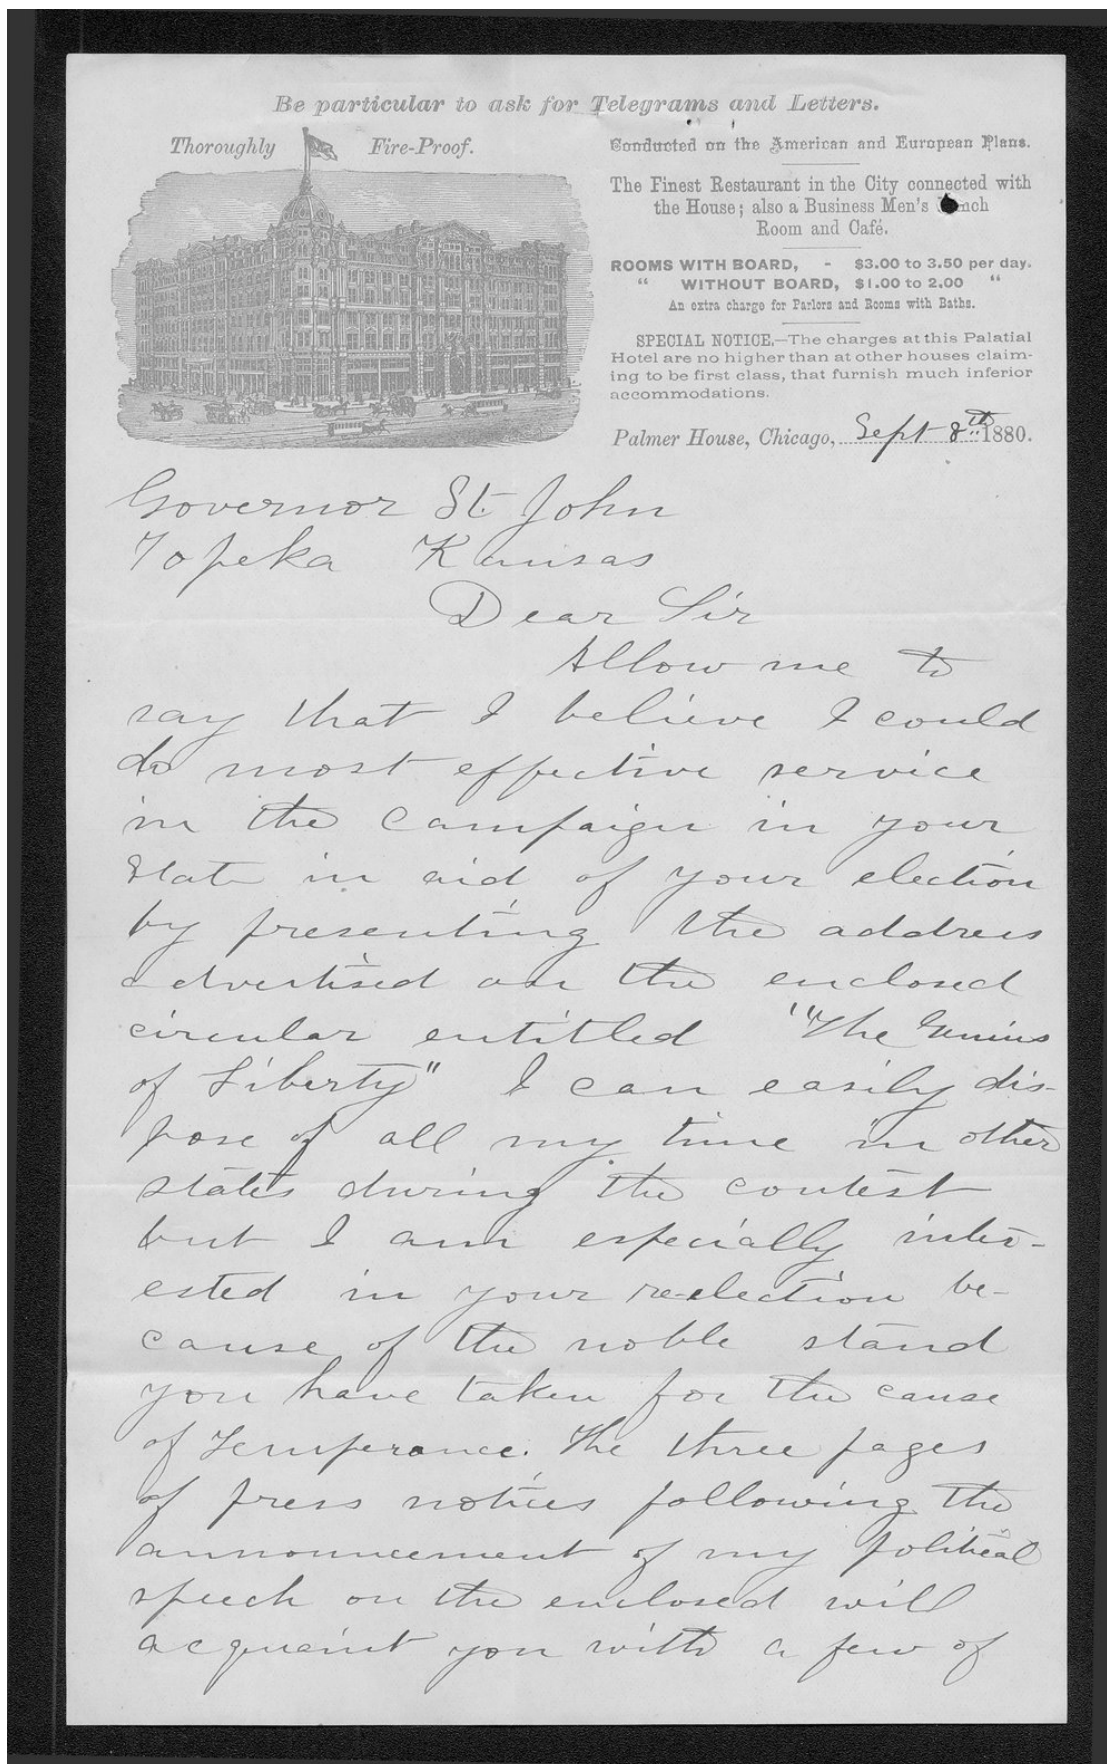

KSHS Identifier: DaRT ID: 306296

Item Identifier: 306296

www.kansasmemory.org/item/306296

Matilda Fletcher to Governor John St. John

Matilda Fletcher to Governor John St. John

2
Be particular to ask for Telegrams and Letters.

Thoroughly Fire-Proof.

Conducted on the American and European Plans.

The Finest Restaurant in the City connected with the House; also a Business Men's Lunch Room and Café.

ROOMS WITH BOARD, - $3.00 to 3.50 per day.
" WITHOUT BOARD, $1.00 to 2.00 "
An extra charge for Parlors and Rooms with Baths.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The charges at this Palatial Hotel are no higher than at other houses claiming to be first class, that furnish much inferior accommodations.

Palmer House, Chicago,.....1880.

The testimonials certifying to my effectiveness as a political speaker during the presidential campaigns of 1872 & 1876 — I am better prepared for such work now and have the advantage of extensive journeys for observation in the South since that time. My legitimate expenses and a small sum additional for each address will be satisfactory. I remember when I lectured in Topeka years ago I received $65 and was paid $100 for a lecture in Leavenworth. Of course I expect no such sums in a political campaign — From $25 to $30 and expenses would do and I am sure the local committees would make

Matilda Fletcher to Governor John St. John

