barn cellar, & he may build as soon as he pleases. It will be a poor move for the Bentons to go to Topeka. — their advantages will be far less & the expenses far more. They will of course do as they please.

Dr Reynolds I saw to day. He leaves next Wednesday for home. Joseph will see him before I come home. Cannot the Bentons get rooms at the Boarding House?

Love to J. H. wife, &c.

Yours as ever,

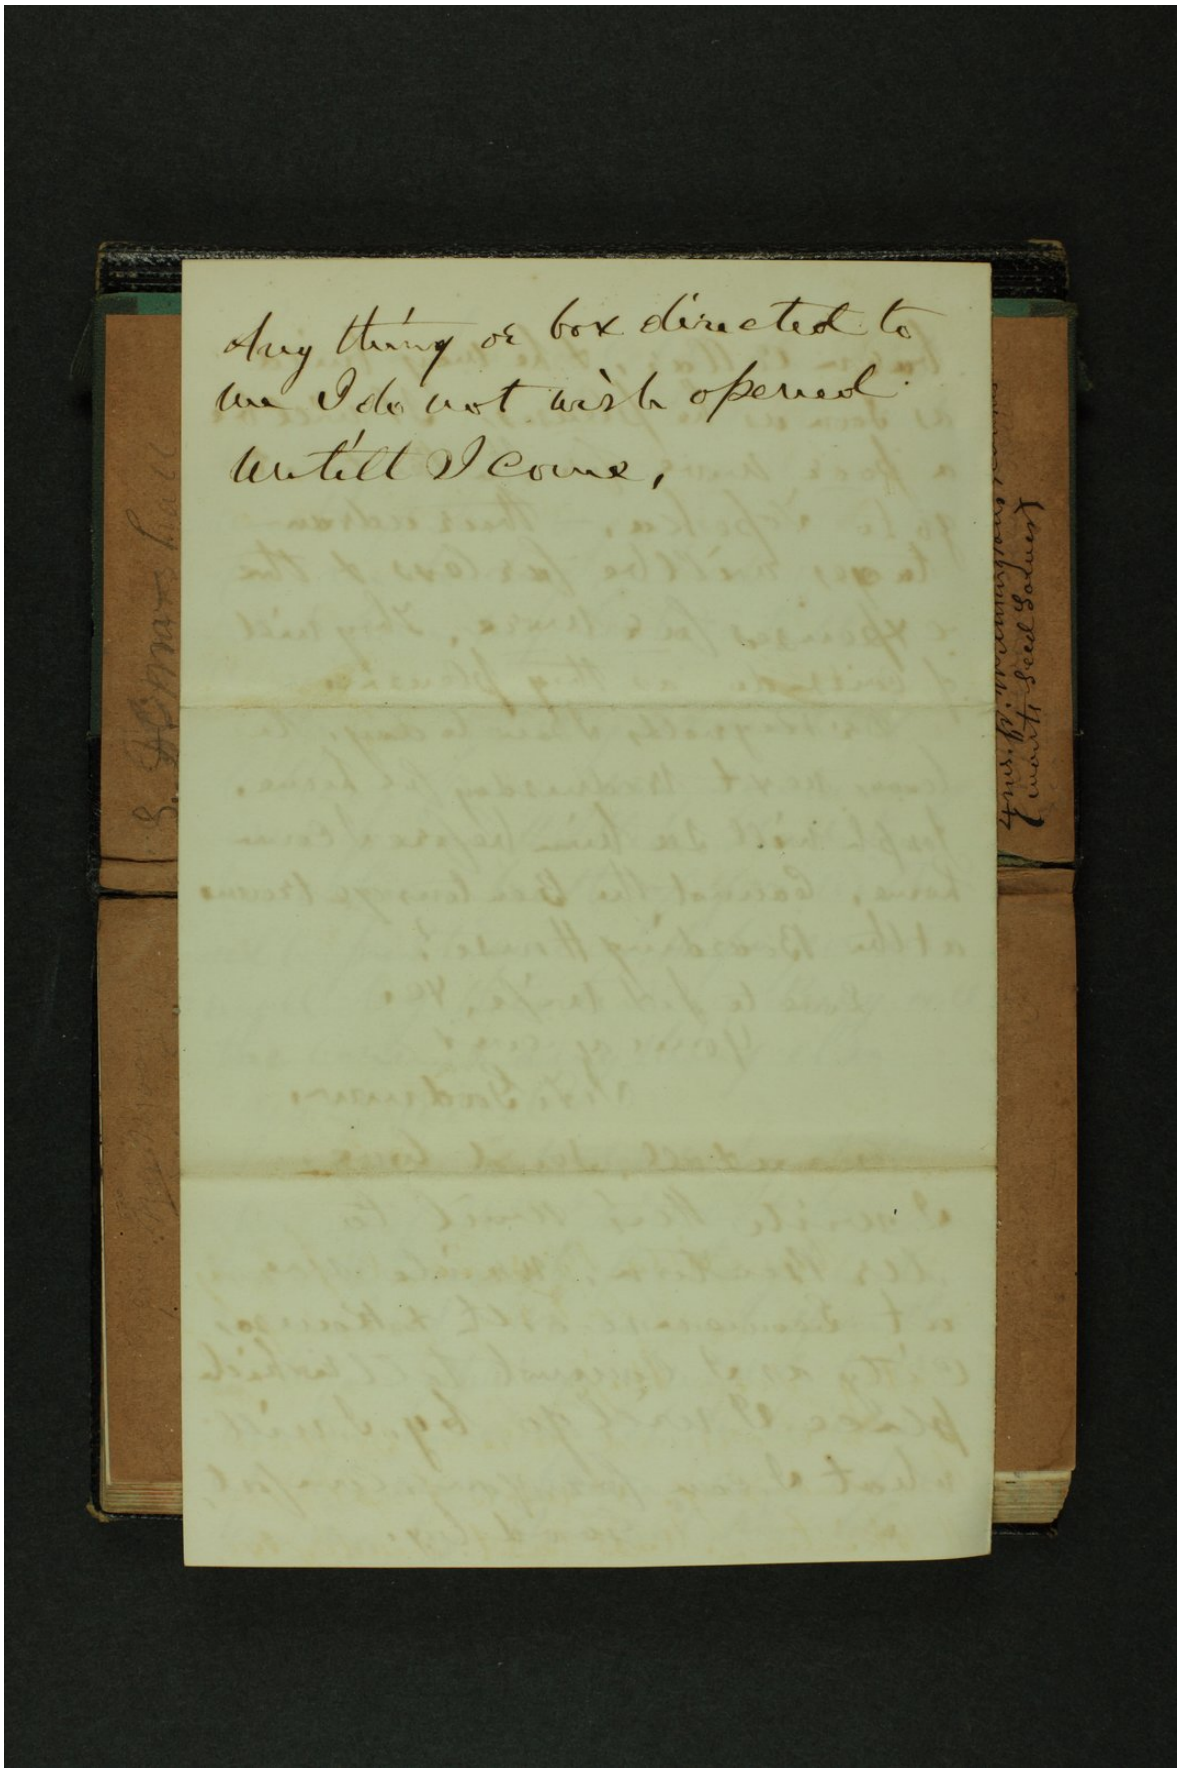

J. T. Goodnow.

Emma & all, send love.

I write this mail to Mr Benton, write me at Leavenworth & Kansas City as I cannot tell which place I will go by. I will what I can for your comfort.

Good by.
