Contract between Bluemont College & Ivison & Phinney.

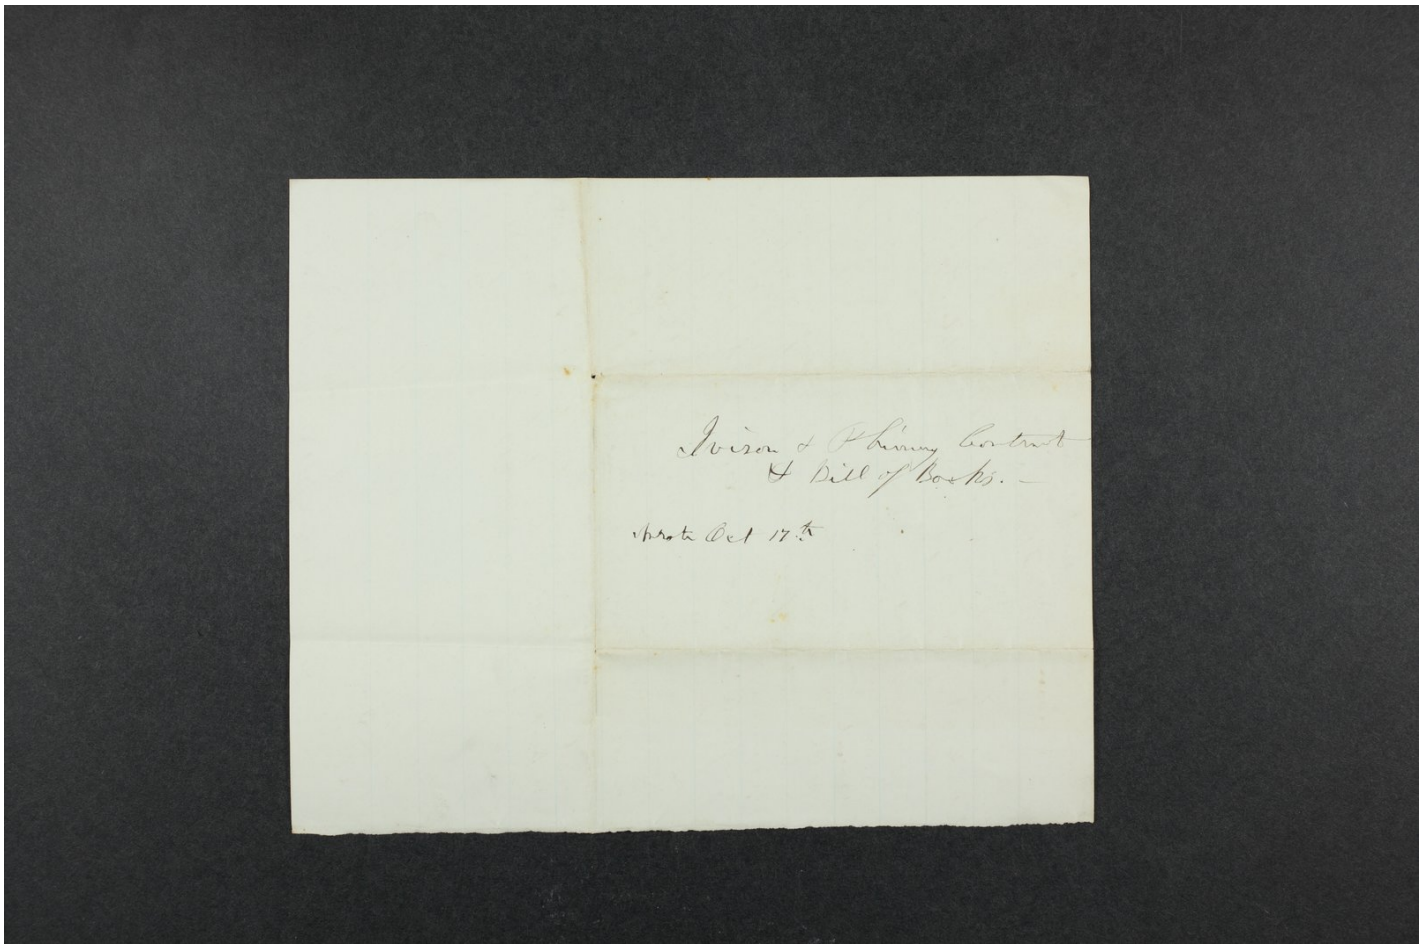

Messrs Ivison & Phinney propose to donate to "Bluemont College" $125 worth of Books at wholesale prices, on condition that said College shall introduce, in the main, their System of text books into the College & use its influence to introduce them in the School around. Furthermore said Ivison & Phinney agree to furnish specimen copies, for examination with reference to introduction into the Common & Higher Schools, of all their most important text books, without charge.

It is further more agreed that if on examination & trial, the text books in the College, the prices, should not be adopted, but some other series be used, then, said College shall pay over to Ivison & Phinney, the actual cost, of the above mentioned $125. worth of Books. And whatever Books shall be invested the first term above $125 shall be paid for at the earliest convenience of the College.

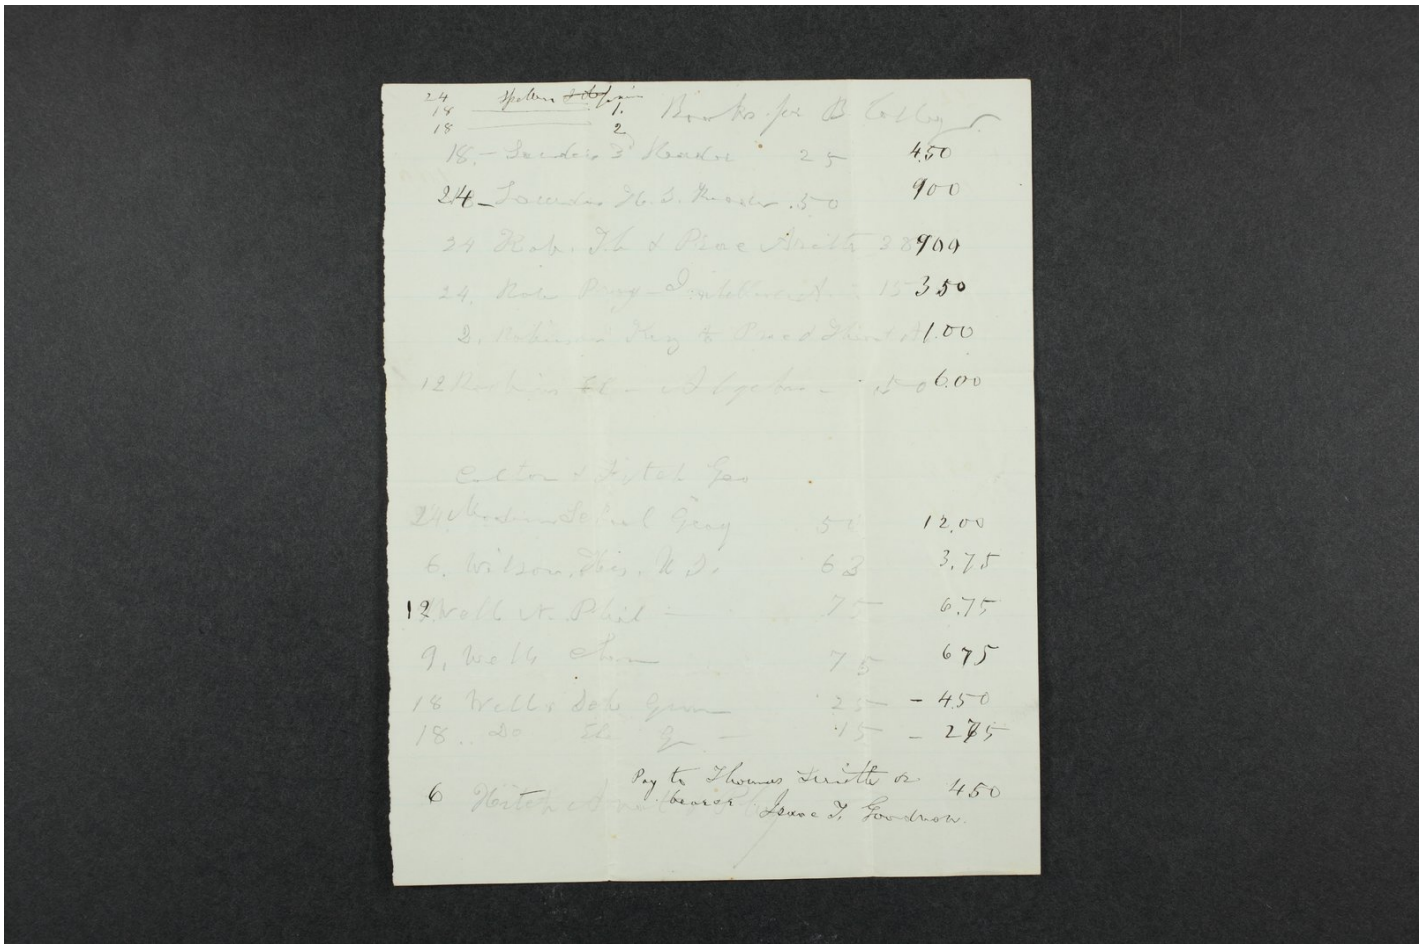

Gentlemen the above I believe to be the substance of the conversation between myself & Mr Foster, all of which is respectively submitted.
