Mr. Frank C. Beck,
1516 Topeka Boulevard,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Beck:

The Inaugural Committee desires that you serve as a member of the Reception Committee for the Landon Inaugural.

Will you please report at the office of the Secretary of State in the State House at 6:30 P. M. Monday, January 9, 1933?

You will be first to be ushered through the receiving line, then you will go to the third floor where you will assist in receiving the distinguished guests, the elected State Officers, the members of the Legislature, and the press and general public.

We are enclosing, herewith, a ticket which admits you to the north second floor entrance of the State House.

We sincerely hope that we may have you with us.

Very cordially yours,

Chairman,
Reception Committee

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

for

THE GOVERNOR'S INAUGURAL

December 29, 1932

A meeting of the Executive Committee for the Governor's Inaugural, 1933, was held in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Tuesday, December 29th.

Those present were: Harry Colmery, Maurice Jencks, W. A. Biby, C. A. Moore, George Swan, Frank Carlson, W. G. West, General M. R. McLean, J. S. Kritser, Jr.,

Mr. Colmery, Chairman, presented the stationery and tickets which were approved. He likewise reported on the letters that were being written stating that they were individual letters addressed to each Senator and Representative.

The Program Committee presented their program, and after a few changes, upon motion by Mr. Moore, it was moved that the program be accepted as inclosed herewith, with the changes and exceptions noted.

General McLean asked that the Chamber of Commerce order eight dozen chairs for the stage. He likewise asked that we send him a list of the guests that were to be there, including the Governor's guests, or any unusual guests.

Upon motion by Biby, it was moved that we have an orchestra instead of a band at the Inaugural Reception. The Secretary was instructed to get in touch with Mr. Lawson and ask him to have the orchestra instead of the band.

The matter of dancing at the Inaugural Reception was deferred until the next meeting of the Committee.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL FOR INAUGURAL CEREMONIES December 19, 1932

A meeting of the Executive Committee for the Inaugural was held December 19, 1932. Those present were:

H. W. Colmery, Chairman
W. G. West
Wm. A. Bibb
Gen. M. R. McLean
Chas. L. Mitchell
C. O. Blevans
Chas. H. Sessions
C. Benjamin Franklin
Frank Carlson
Holmes Meade
C. A. Moore
Geo. W. Hargreaves
C. B. Merriam
M. W. Jencks
M. W. Drehmer

The Chairman asked for a report from the Reception Committee as to their financial needs. Mr. Mitchell reported that he would require approximately $125. The Inaugural Committee at the Auditorium and the Arrangements Committee made a request for $330. Publicity Committee, no expense. Program Committee, 5000 programs, approximately $40. Tickets, $40. Upon motion by Mr. Franklin it was moved that we try to raise $800 and the residue, if any, be returned to the donors.

Upon motion by Mr. Mitchell, it was moved that the Chairman extend an invitation to the Commanding Officer at Fort Riley and the Commanding Officer at Fort Leavenworth asking them to be our guests at the Inaugural Ceremonies.

Included in this report is the written report of the Committee on Arrangements as submitted by General McLean. Additions to this report were: Someone to be detailed to watch the wraps. There should be guards at the South entrance to keep cars from parking in this entrance. Check stand should be provided.

Mr. Mitchell of the Reception Committee appointed Dean Ackers to handle the Senate and Maurice Jencks to handle the House.

Upon motion it was moved that Mr. Carlson be chairman of the Inaugural at noon and introduce the incoming officers.
