

Jennie Piper to Governor John St. John

A letter from Jennie Piper to Kansas Governor John St. John. Jennie is concerned about a saloon opening in Monticello on "the eve of the election" and wants to confirm if the saloon is properly licensed and if anything can be done to close the establishment.

Jennie Piper to Governor John St. John

Monticello Johnson Co.

Kansas

Oct 8th 1880

Gov. J. P. St John

Dear Sir

I have No doubt you will be surprised at receiving a missive from me but it is of great importance to us. There has been a Saloon started in Monticello lately and they claim to be selling under Government License can you tell me if such is the case or if they have License of any kind and if so what course can we pursue to have it stoped I regret so much to see it started just now on the eve of the Election and hope it can

Jennie Piper to Governor John St. John

be stoped before that time by letting me hear from you at your earliest convenience you will greatly oblige one of your friends ~~and~~ admirers as a politician and a temperance gentleman

Mrs. Jennie Piper
