

Petroglyphs from the Ward Petroglyph Site, 14EW17

The Ward Petroglyph site in Ellsworth County has many petroglyphs present on six separate panels of Dakota sandstone. Those shown here include four anthropomorphic figures: one with a circular head and triangular body, one with a triangular head and bottle shaped body, one with possible tepees in the background and one leading a quadruped. These views were shot in 1979 and 1980.
