Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Section 2, Pages 31 - 60

This is a scrapbook compiled by Lieutenant Russell DeVere Friend, who graduated from the University of Kansas in 1918 with a B.A. degree. Russell enlisted on February 26, 1918 and called to active duty April 12, 1918. He was commissioned on December 3, 1918, received his commission on December 3, 1918, and was stationed at the Massachusetts Institution of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts; San Diego flying school, San Diego, California; and Pensacola, Florida where he trained as a hydroplane pilot and instructor until January 30, 1919. Friend was discharged on February 25, 1922. The scrapbook contains newspaper clippings, photographs, telegrams, and letters. Also, the scrapbook includes information on Paul H. Friend, Russell's brother. Paul was a sergeant with Base Hospital Unit 28 and served in France during World War I.

Creator: Friend, Russell DeVere

Date: 1917-1919

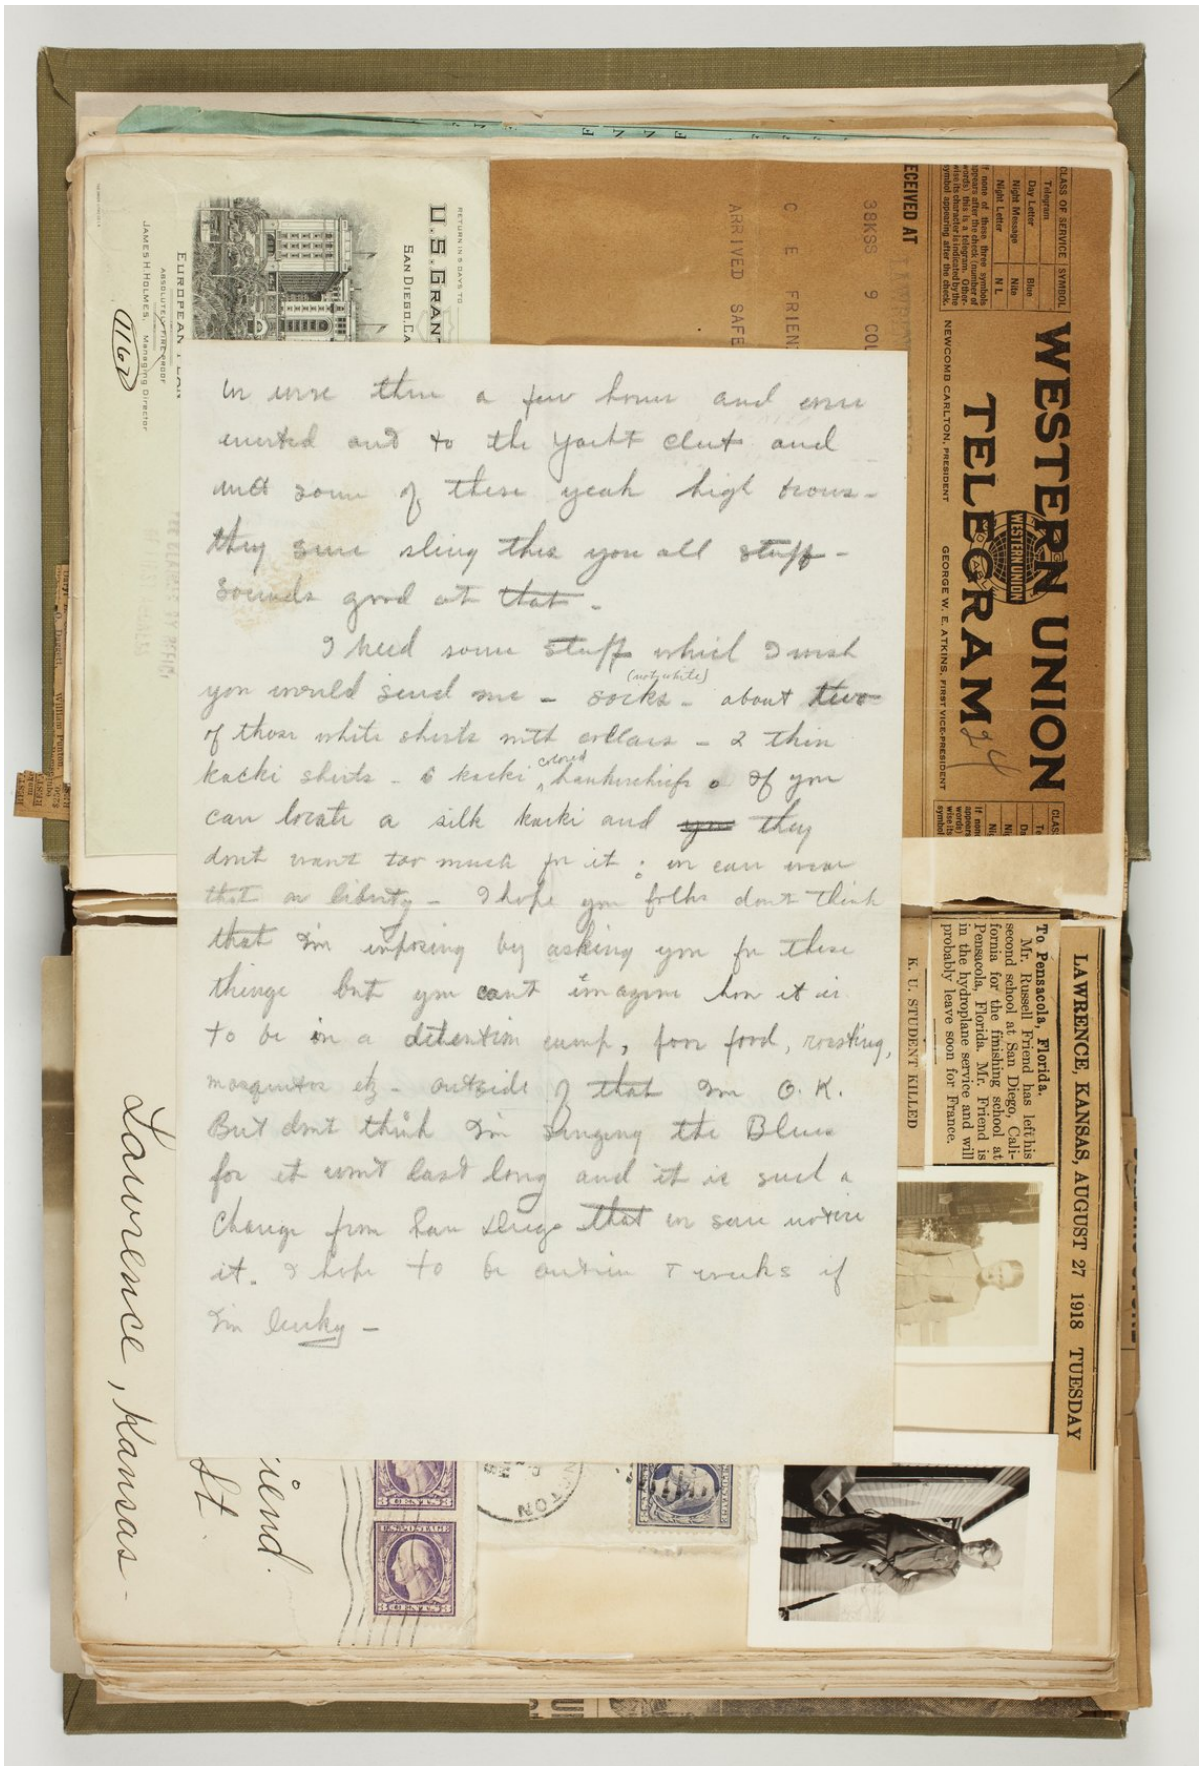

Callnumber: 2017-071

KSHS Identifier: DaRT ID: 439562

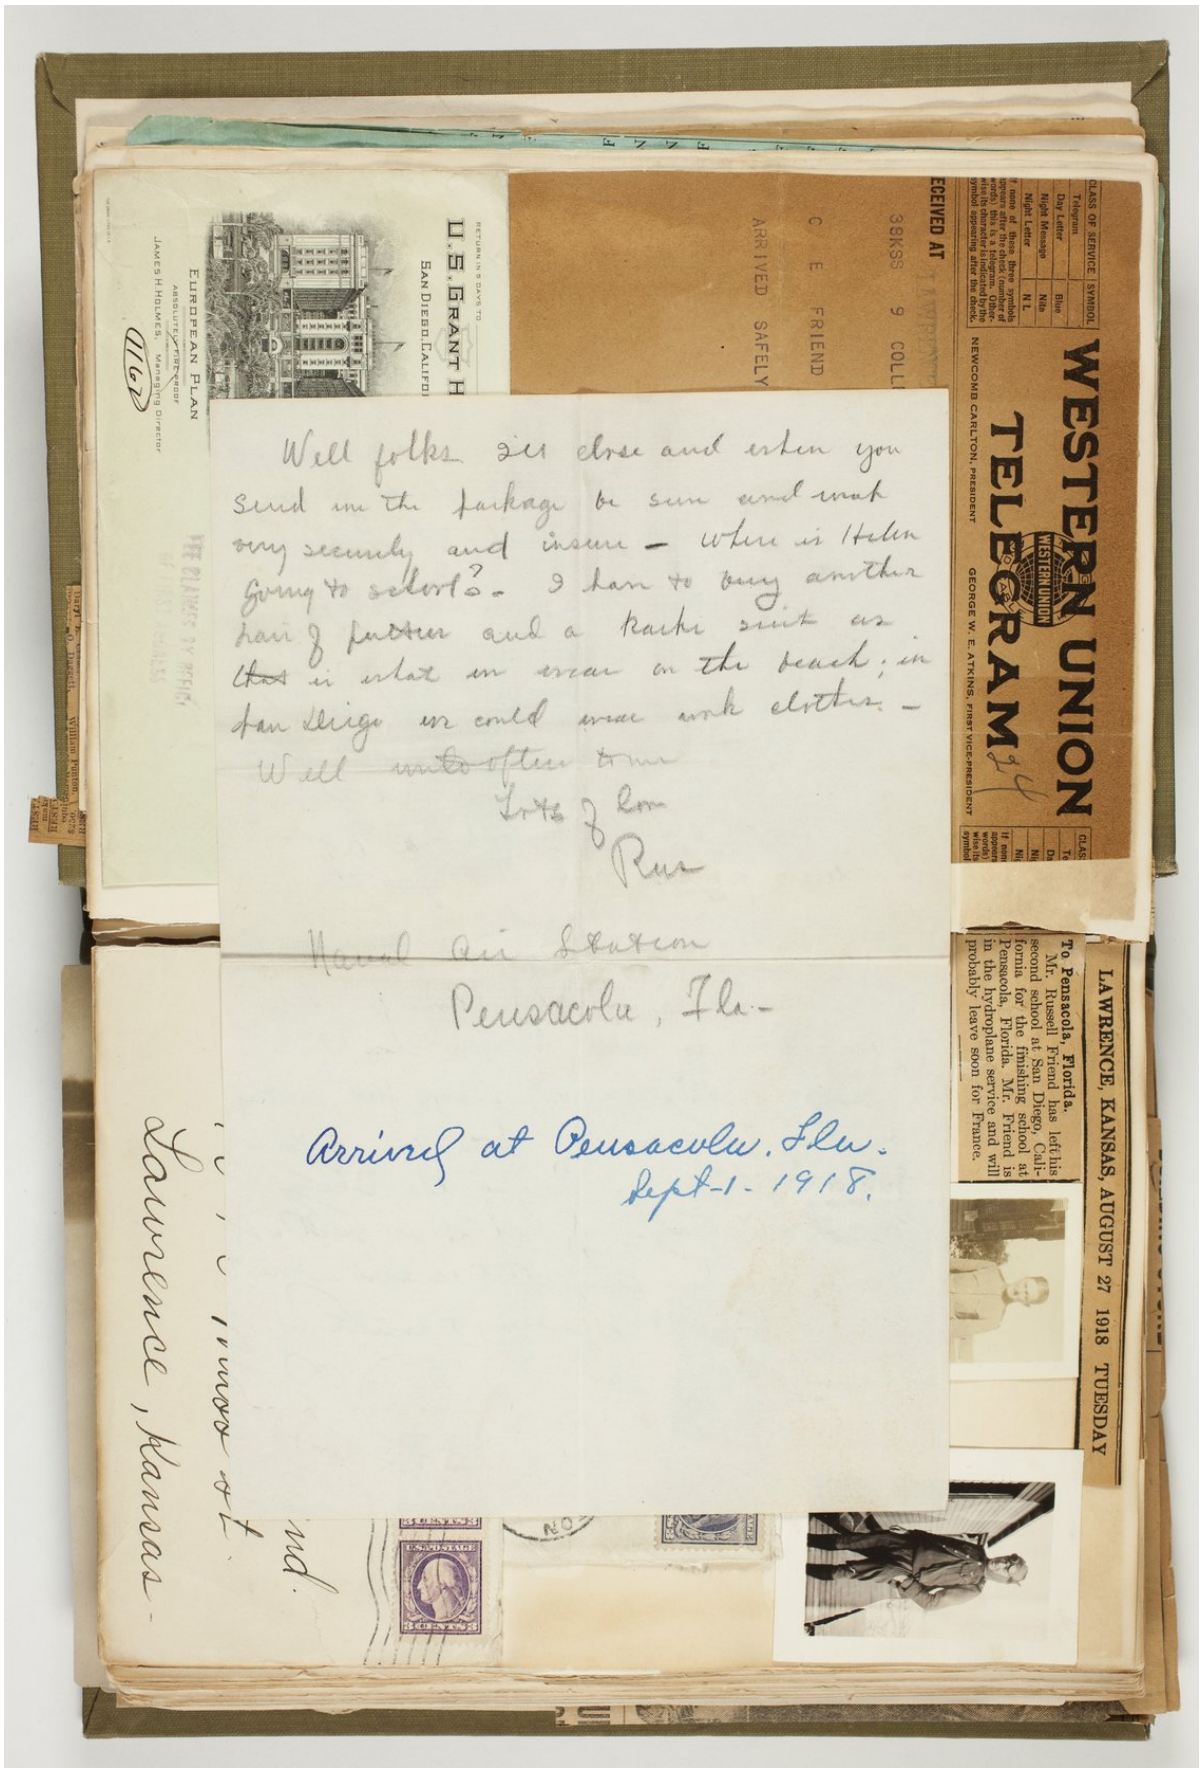

Item Identifier: 439562

www.kansasmemory.org/item/439562

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

SAN PEDRO PARK, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 5, 191

Rusty" Friend an Ensign In Naval Aviation Now

"Rusty" Friend, cheerleader of the University last year has received his commission as ensign at the naval aviation station at Pensacola, Fla., according to word received here by his mother, Mrs. C. E. Friend. The letter said that Mr. Friend has made numerous flights with other officers recently as pilot.

Before he entered the military service Mr. Friend had taken a major in geology at the University of Kansas and he was employed during the early part of last summer in the Texas oil fields by an Oklahoma City refining company. He is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. His brother, Paul Friend, from the University, is in the military service.

S. M. A. BULLETIN

H. Friend, '13, graduated from the University of Kansas in 1917 with the B. L. degree. He has been in service almost two years, the last year being in France as Hospital Sergeant, with Base Hospital Unit, 28. He expects to return to his home in Laurence, Kansas in April when he will enter the retail lumber business with his father.

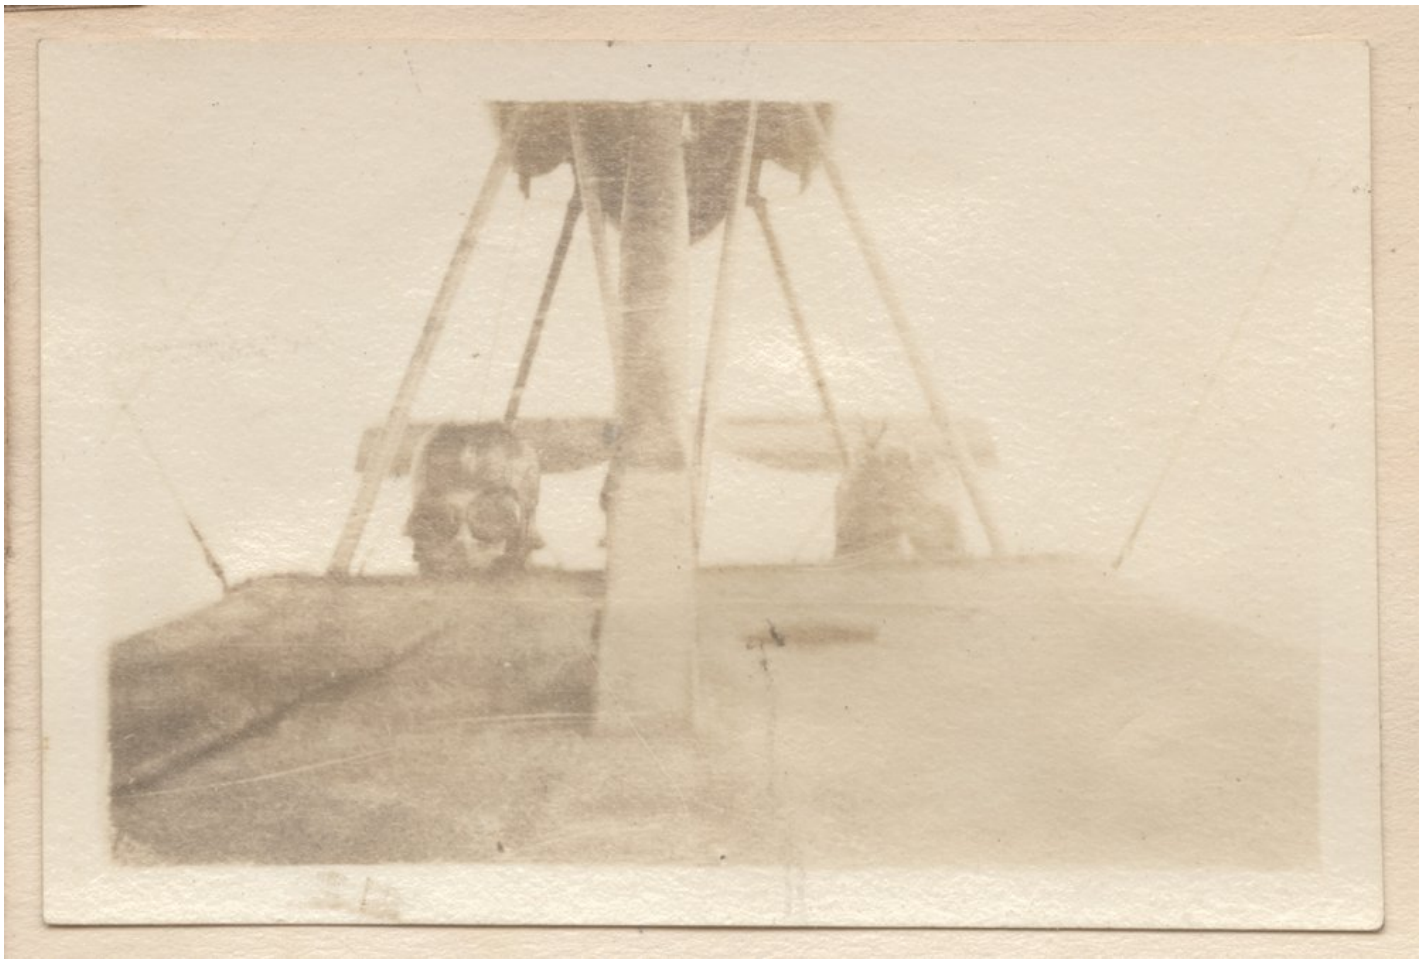

S. M. A. BULLETIN

Russell D. Friend, '14, graduated from the University of Kansas in 1918, with a B. A. degree. He received his commission as Ensign in the Naval Aviation at Pensacola and has been stationed there for several months. After being released from service, he expects to do geological work in Texas.

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

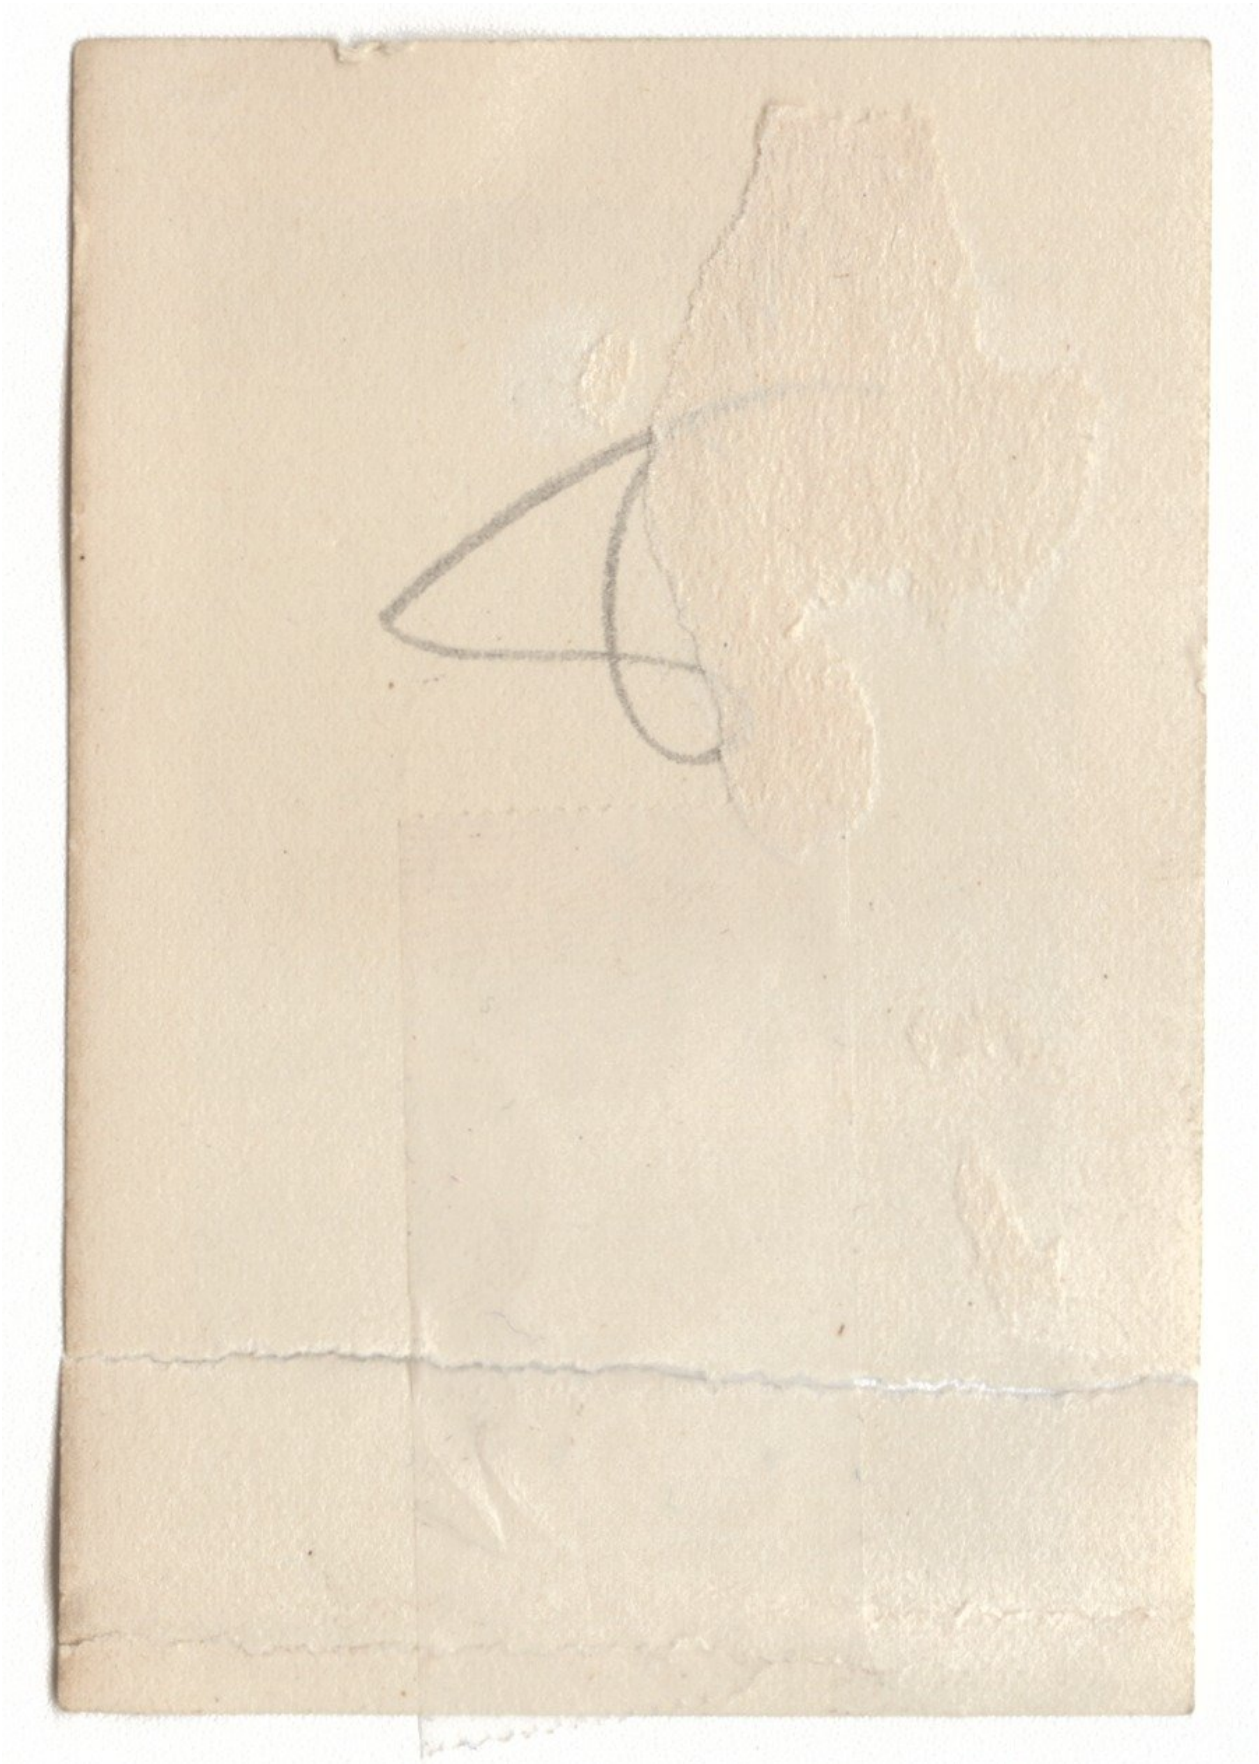

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

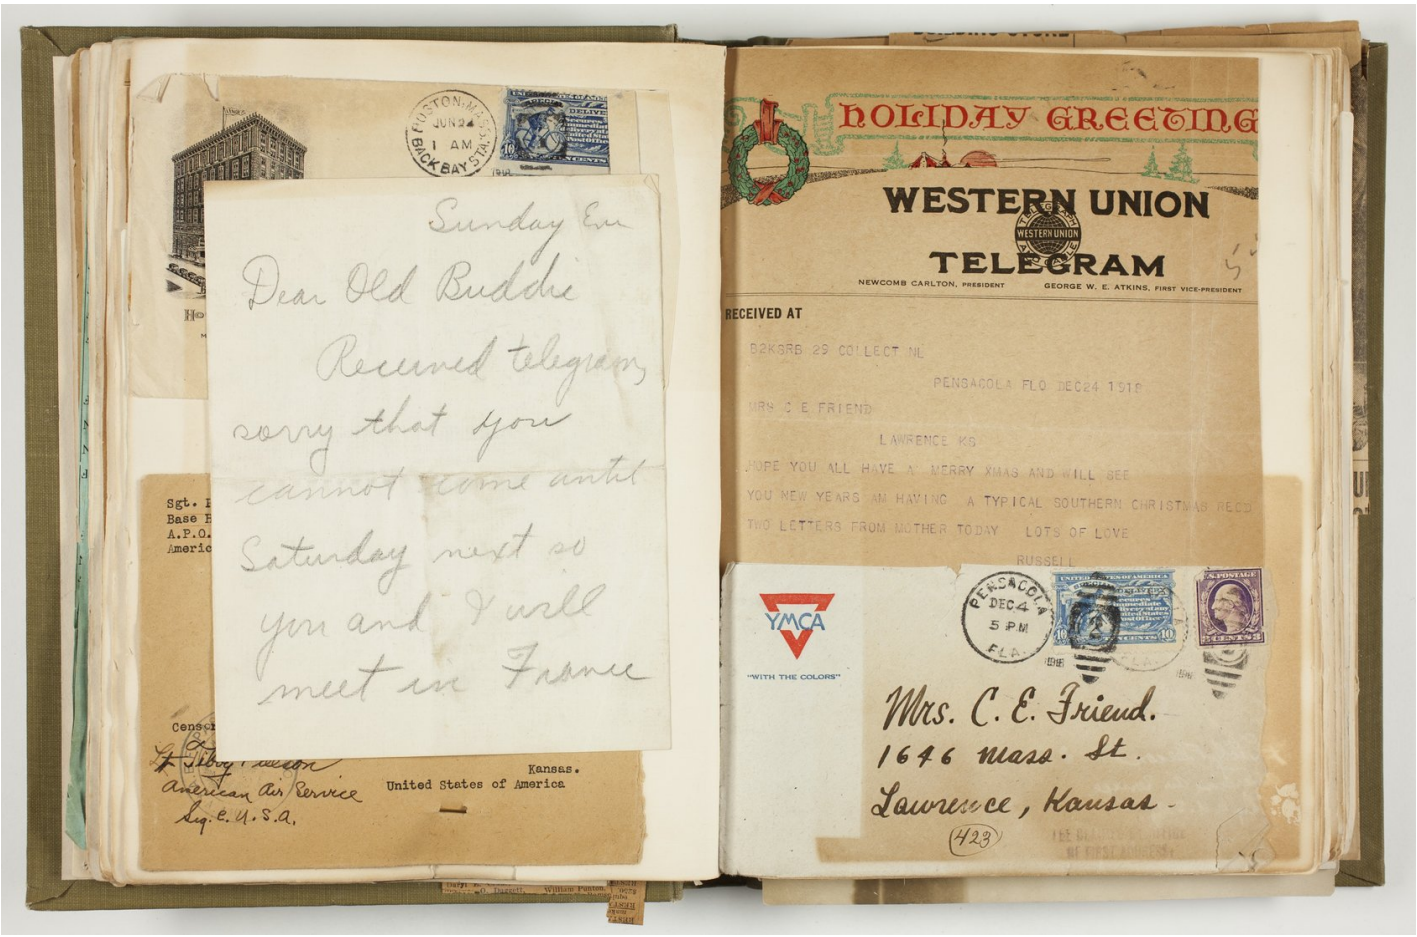

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

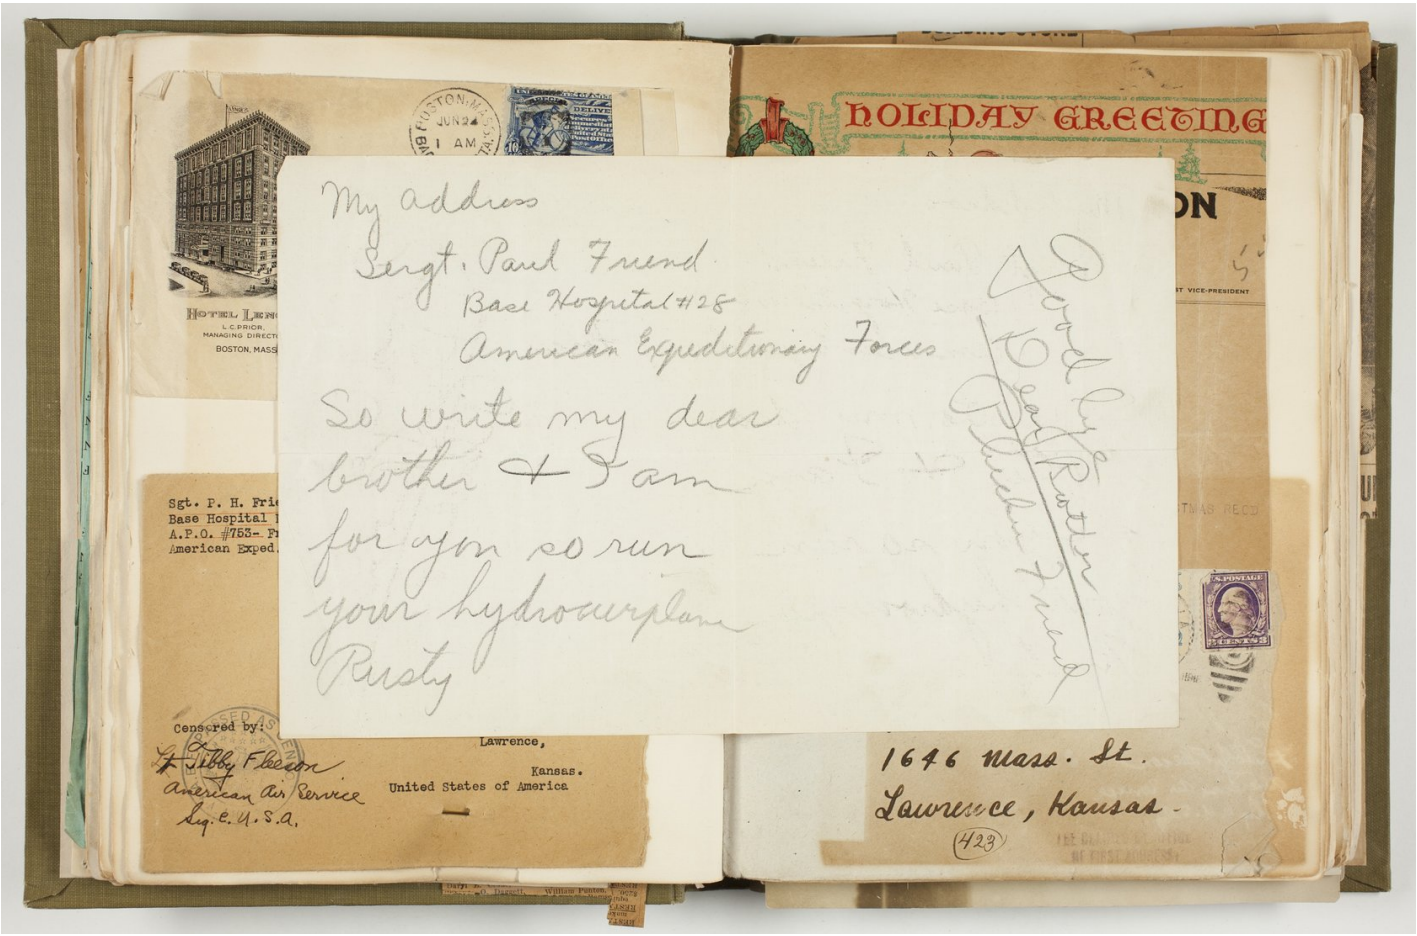

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

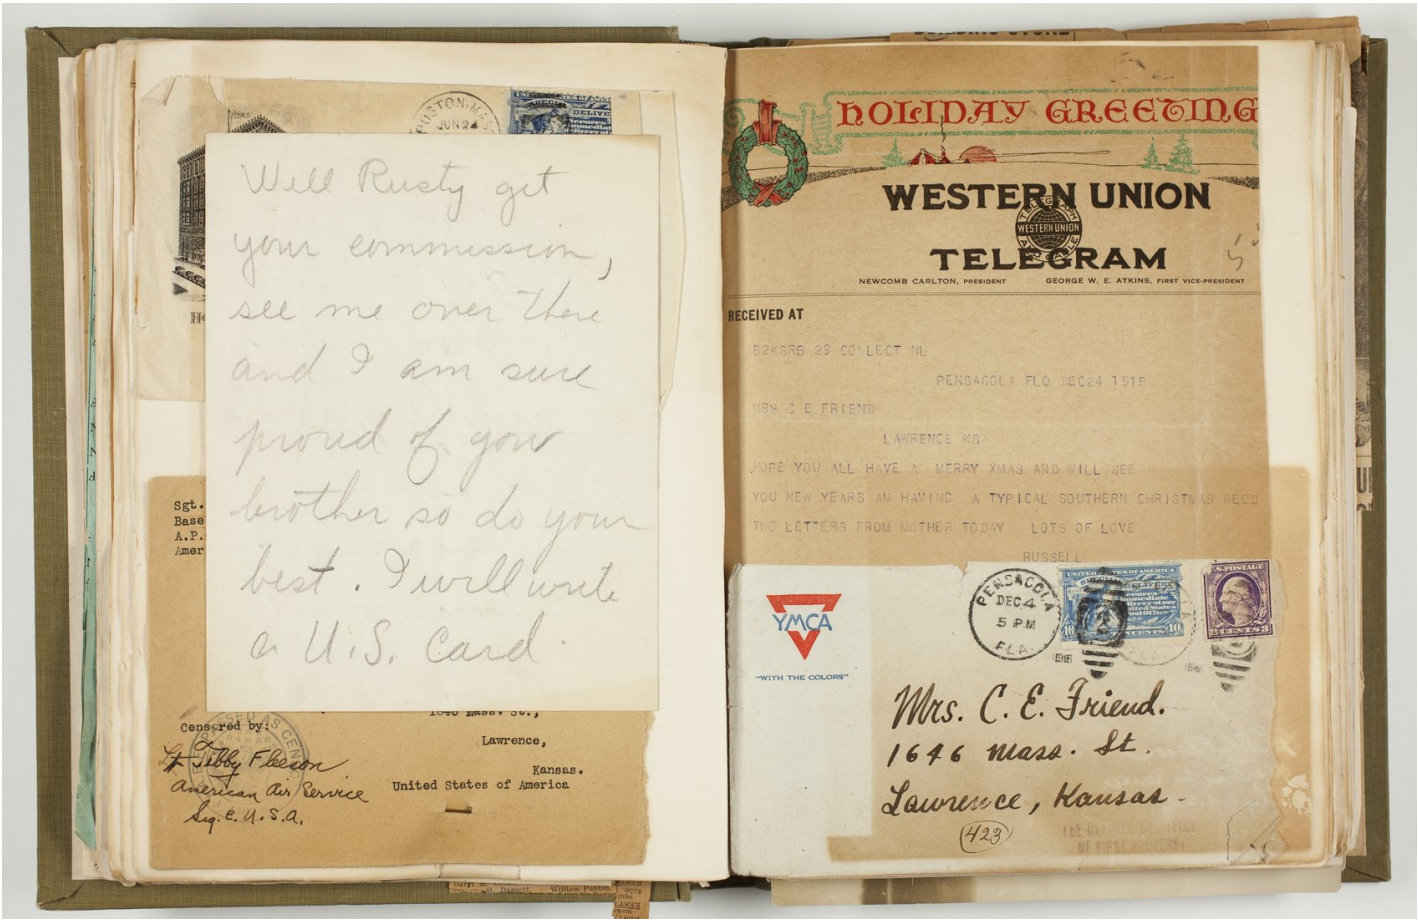

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

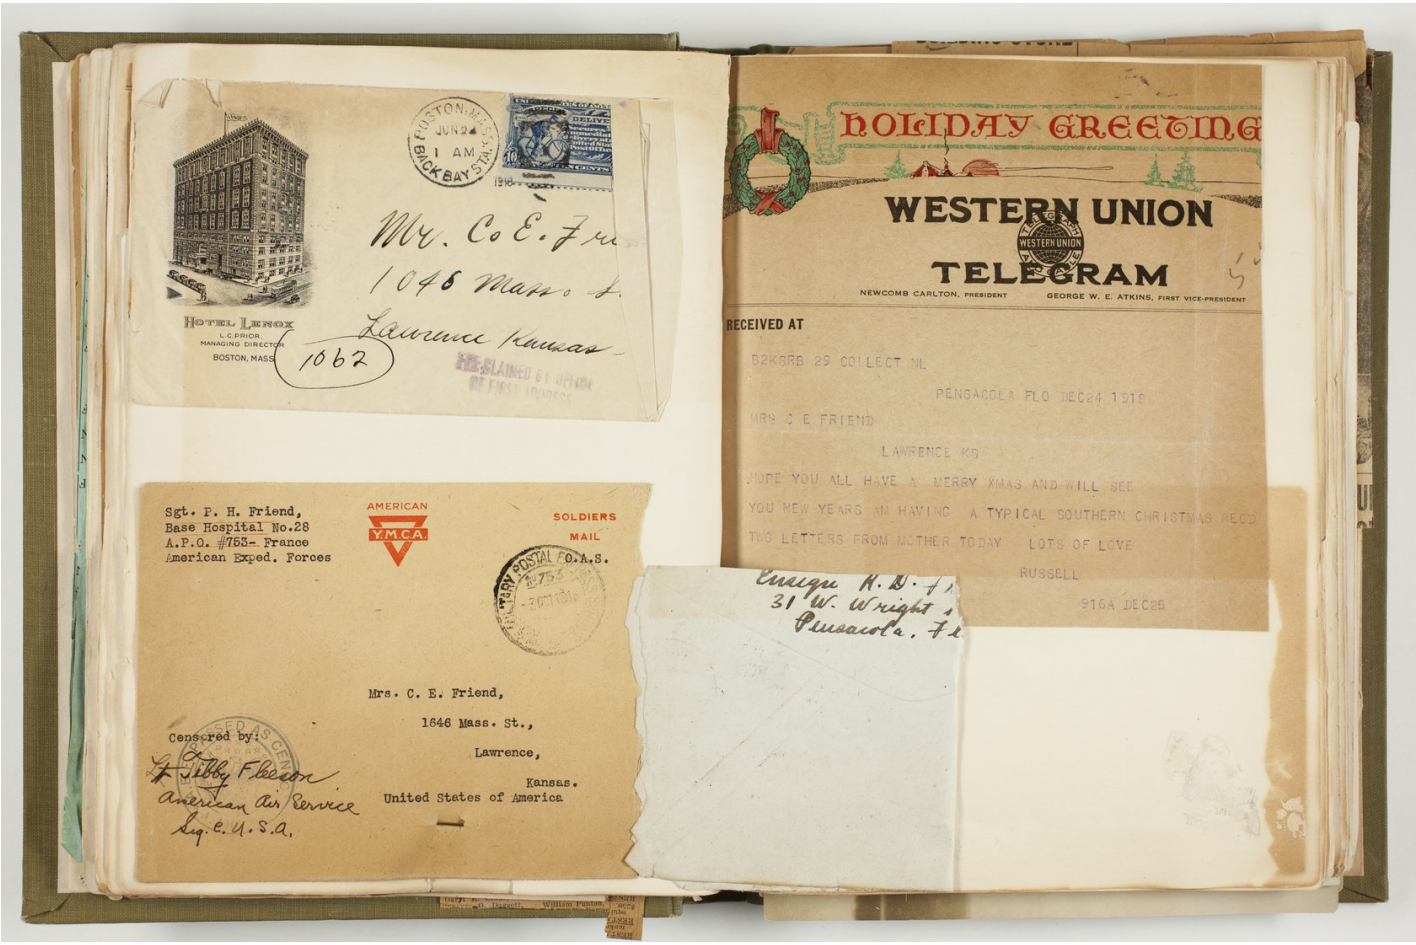

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

Lieutenant Russell Friend's World War I scrapbook

