United States versus Francis Miller for trespass in Indian country

Know all men by these presents that we Francis Miller as principal and Henry Wiggans as sureties all of Franklin County K. T. are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America in the sum of five hundred dollars to the faithful payment of which said sum we hereby firmly bind ourselves our heirs and legal representatives.

Witness our hands and seals this 19th day of March A. D. 1860 – The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounden Francis Miller has been duly held to answer at the next term of the District Court of the United States within and for the Second Judicial District of the Territory of Kansas to a certain charge of trespass in the Indian Country.

Now if the said bounden Francis Miller shall appear at the said Court of the United States within and for the Second Judicial District of the Territory of Kansas on the first day of the next term thereof there to be and appear from day to day and from term to term and obey all orders of said Court until fully discharged by said Court then this obligation to be null and void otherwise in full force and effect.
