Kansas Territory versus Derrick Updegraft for unknown

Kansas Territory } In the Second Judicial District in said Territory
v.
Derick Updegraff }

The Defendant in the above entitled cause personally appeared in Open Court and makes oath and says that Sims is a material witness for him upon the trial of the above entitled cause as he is advised by Counsel and verily believes

Affiant further deposes and says that though he was indicted at the last Term of this Court he had no knowledge of the pendency of such indictment until upon yesterday when he was arrested upon said charge that since his arrest he has been unable to ascertain the where about of the said Sims but knowing that he was beyond the reach of the process of this Court Affiant has not called upon this Court for the process of the same to bring the said Sims into the Court That he hopes and expects to procure the testimony of the said Sims by the next term of this Court That this application is not made for delay but for substantial justice Derick Updegraff

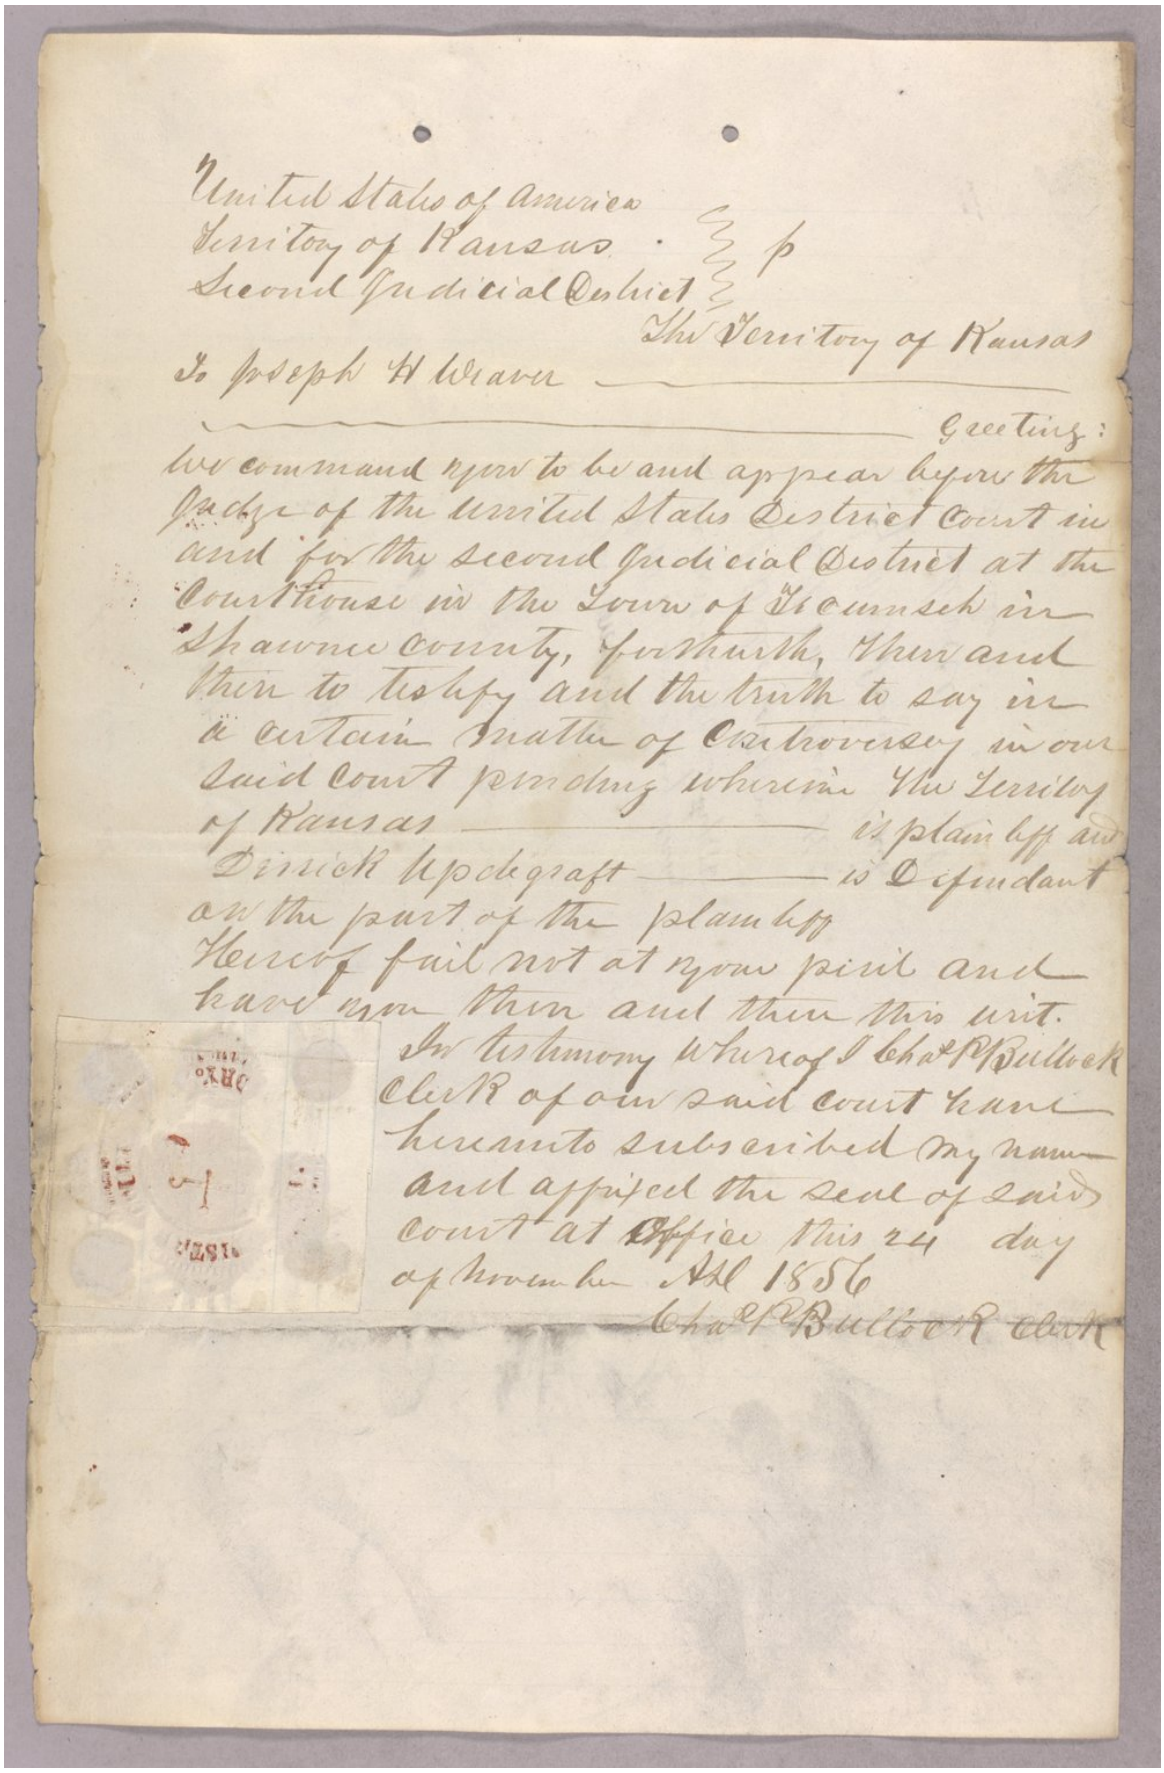

Sworn to & subscribed in open Court before me Nov 25 1855 Chas. P. Babcock Clerk 2nd Dist.
