United States versus Fanny Weaver for settling on Indian land

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, } In the District Court of the United States within and for the 3^d Judi-TERRITORY OF KANSAS. } cial District of the Territory of Kansas.

THE UNITED STATES,

Plaintiff,

VS

PETITION.

Fanny Weaver
Defendant.

Now comes the said United States, plaintiff, and complains of the said Fanny Weaver defendant, that whereas heretofore to wit: On or about the first day of February A. D. 18*60* at the County of Lin in the District aforesaid, the said defendant not regarding the act of the Congress of the said United States in such case made and provided, nor fearing the penalties therein contained, made a settlement on the lands belonging to the Miami tribe of Indians secured to the said tribe by treaty with the said United States, in the county and District aforesaid, and then and there attempted to survey, and did survey the lands and designate the boundaries thereof by marking the trees thereon contrary to the form of the act of the Congress of the said United States in such case made and provided, entitled an act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers, approved June 30th 1834, and thereby then and there forfeited to the said United States the penalty of one Thousand Dollars, whereby and by force of said act of the Congress of the United States in such case made and provided an action hath accrued to the said United States to have and demand of and from the said defendant the sum of one Thousand Dollars so by him forfeited as aforesaid under the provisions of the said act of Congress. Yet the said defendant, although often requested, has not paid the said sum of one Thousand Dollars, or any part thereof to the said plaintiff, but to pay the same or any part thereof hath hitherto wholly refused, and still doth refuse, and said one Thousand Dollars is now due and owing from said Defendant to said Plaintiff. Wherefore the Plaintiff demands judgement against the said Defendant for the sum of one Thousand Dollars, besides the costs of this action.
