KANSAS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

United States versus John Wilson for larceny

United States of America
Territory of Kansas } ss. Be it remembered that on this Eleventh day of November A.D. 1856 before me Edward Hoagland a United States Commissioner within & for the said Territory of Kansas duly authorized by law to take acknowledgments of Bail, personally appeared John Wilson as principal and Charles F. Wood as surety and severally acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Territory of Kansas in the sum that is to say, - the said John Wilson in the sum of One thousand dollars and the said Charles F. Wood in the sum of One thousand dollars to be well and truly paid if default shall be made in the condition following:

The condition of this Recognizance is such that if the said John Wilson shall personally appear at the next Term of the District Court of the United States for the First District of said Territory of Kansas, to be held at Lecompton in said Territory then and there to answer any indictment that may be preferred against him for Larceny, Robbery or any Felony whatsoever, and to do and receive what shall by the Court be then and there enjoined upon him, then this Recognizance to be void, - otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

Taken subscribed & acknowledged before me this 11th day of Nov. 1856

United States versus John Wilson for larceny

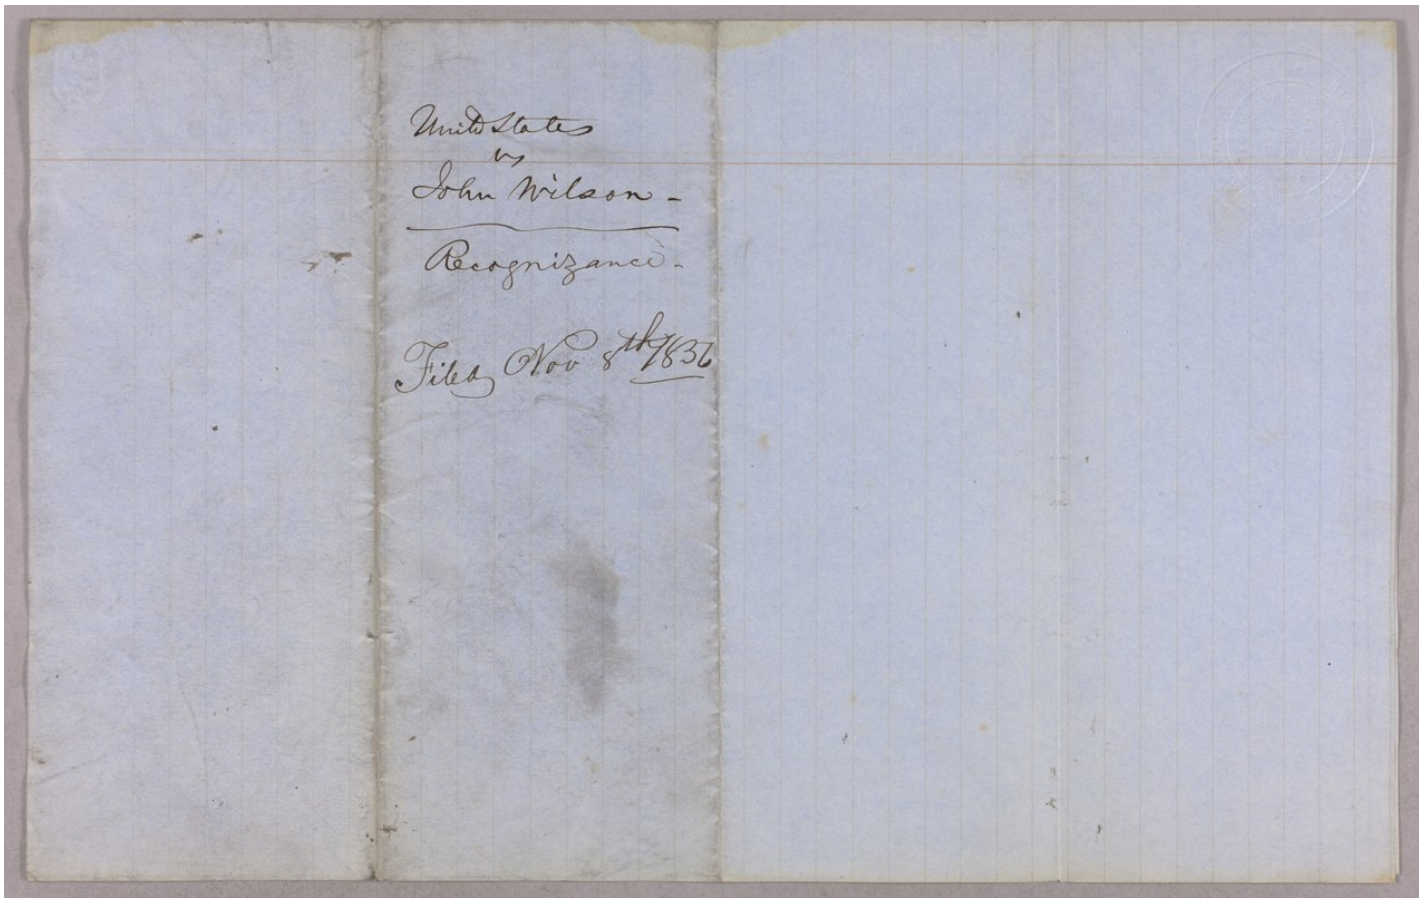

United States of America
Territory of Kansas } ss. Charles L. Wood within named being duly sworn says that he is worth double the penalty of the within Recognizance for which he is bound, and that within the Territory of Kansas he has two thousand dollars of his own in money, over & above all just debts & demands against him, - that he has personal property to the value of one thousand dollars besides, - that he is a man of family having a wife and one child, and resides upon his own claim situated near Little Ottawa Creek in Douglas County Kansas Territory, which he intends to pre-empt.
