Library

Samuel D. Guengerich, 1836-1929, an Amish Mennonite (Old Order) lay leader in southeast Iowa, built this desk which contains books from his personal library.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY AND YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH...

The Mennonite Historical Library contains an extensive genealogical collection. We attempt to collect all relevant genealogical publications for Amish and Mennonite families; those of Swiss and South German origins are particularly well represented, along with many Dutch, West Prussian and Russian families.

Since it is increasingly difficult to keep up with all the family history books published today, we appreciate those who remember the Library and send us books.

The Mennonite Historical Committee will list your volume in their quarterly Bulletin; then your book will be sent to us for inclusion in the genealogical collection.
