Having been asked if directors could vote by proxy, I submitted the question to Attorney-General Wm. A. Smith, who by virtue of his position is our legal advisor, and he has informed me that proxies cannot be voted, as under the law members of a board of directors must be present in order to cast a vote.

In closing I wish to say that I am deeply appreciative of the faithful service of Mr. Fred Bonebrake, who accepted a temporary appointment as secretary by the executive committee and has carried on the work of the society for the past few months.

Hoping that you will be able to attend the annual meeting Tuesday, October 21, 1930, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Abbie Holman
Lincoln, Kansas

Dear Mrs. Holman:

My attention has been called to the fact that on last Sunday you celebrated your one hundredth birthday at the home of your granddaughter, Mrs. L. A. Levin, in Lincoln.

It is only proper that I should extend my congratulations and it is my sincere wish that you may live to enjoy many more birthdays.

During your lifetime you have seen a marvelous development and progress made in this wonderful country of ours. It is my opinion great progress will continue and during the next one hundred years improvements in all lines will be made. Just undreamed of things will be commonplace, and I hope you may witness some of this development.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Governor

HER 100TH BIRTHDAY

Grandma Abbie Holman will celebrate her 100th birthday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. L. A. Lovin, on Sunday, Aug. 24. She is looking forward to the event. They will keep open house to her friends of whom she has many all over this county and she will be glad to see them all. Lincoln county brags of many octogenarians but this is the only centenarian we have and she will no doubt be honored when her 100th birthday arrives.

100th
Birthdays
Mrs Holman

Dear Governor Reed: On the 24th of August 1930, Mrs. Abbie Holman, will celebrate her 100th birthday, at Lincoln, Kansas at the home of her grand-daughter Mrs. L. A. Lovin.

Mrs. Holman is very anxious that this announcement of her birthday be sent to the Governor of her state - the state she has lived in and loved for many years. A word from you would cheer her, this good old Centenarian.

Very truly A neighbor.
