Barber Board

Mr Clyde Reed.
Parsons Kans.
Dear Sir:

I would like to be considered as a posible candidate for appointment on the Babers State Board. I did not want to get any recommends from the different officers or committee men unless I had a show of getting the appointment. I barbered for 15 years before I was elected to Treas so can qualify for the place. If some other worthy man is not promised the job I would like to have it. An answer, if possible stating the possibilities of getting it or not getting it will be appreciated.

Yours Truly
A. M. Weir.
