HEAD QUARTERS OF SECOND BRIGADE OF NORTHERN DIVISION OF KANSAS MILITIA LEAVENWORTH CITY

NOVEMBER 28TH, 1855

To the Militia of the 2d Brigade:

Information has been received by me, that a state of open rebellion is now in existence in Douglass County, K. T., this is therefore to command the Militia of my Brigade, of the Northern Division, to meet at Leavenworth City on SATURDAY, 1st DAY of DECEMBER, 1855, at 11 o'clock, A. M., armed and equipped according to law, and to hold themselves in readiness subject to the order of Major Gen. W. P. RICHARDSON.

Bring your arms and ammunition along.

LUCIAN J. EASTIN,

Brig. Gen. 2d Brigade, Northern Division Kansas Militia.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

It is expected that every lover of Law and Order, will rally at Leavenworth on Saturday, December 1st, 1855, prepared to march at once to the scene of rebellion, to put down the out-laws of Douglass County, who are committing depredations upon persons and property, turning down Houses, and declaring open hostility and resistance to the laws, have forcibly rescued a prisoner from the Sheriff. Come one, come all! The Laws must be executed. The out-laws it is said are armed to the teeth and number one thousand men. Every man should bring his rifle, ammunition, and it would be well to bring two or three days provisions. The call will be promptly obeyed. Every man to his post and do his duty.

MANY CITIZENS.
