

Samuel G. Howe to Thomas W. Higginson

Samuel G. Howe, a member of the National Kansas Committee, writes this letter to Reverend Thomas W. Higginson, a supporter of abolitionist John Brown and an agent for the Massachusetts Kansas Aid Committee. The letter concerns a woman whom Higginson had unknowingly referred to as a "gentleman" in a previous communication. The "gentle lady" has supplied the money for some pistols for the free staters and had also contributed a great deal of money to the Kansas free state cause.

My dear Sir, 41416.

Thanks for your note.

The gentleman
who supplied the money for the pistol was a gentle lady, who to my knowledge, has,
against the advice
of her "mourners",
contributed more
than five times
the amount to Kansas
May her ~~kindness~~ be multiplied
viva!

S. G. Howe.
