

Thomas Ewing, Jr., to Governor Charles Robinson

This brief letter to Charles Robinson in Lawrence was to inform the "governor" of Ewing's activities on his behalf and to send him a copy of one of the half dozen or so letters Ewing had written in support of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs appointment. Letters reportedly went to Caleb B. Smith; John Sherman; Governors T. Corwin, William Dennison, and Salmon Chase; Joseph J. Coombs; and "Father," Thomas Ewing, Sr.

Gov. Conni, Gov. Decension, Gov. Chase, Father & Jos: S. Combs. Enclosed which is about to the same purport with the others.

The Legislature should not meet (State Leg :) until about last March. By that time I think you will be Comr.

I want to hear from
